AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Pope Francis

Introduction

The following pages contain a brief evaluation of key elements of your birth chart, although it is by no means complete. Astrology can reveal many things about a person's life and personality, and you could study your chart for a lifetime without knowing the answers to all of your questions. The descriptions that follow will give you a "thumbnail" introduction to yourself through astrology.

In interpreting your chart, this report considers the sign of the planets and the north node in your chart, as well as their house placements. It also describes the sign of the Ascendant and the strongest aspects between the planets.

You may note that some of the following descriptions appear to contradict each other--and indeed we are all walking bundles of contradiction. If you examine yourself carefully, you will probably realize that you do in fact possess the qualities of both conflicting descriptions. Even though some parts of the reading may seem to clash, you will see that certain themes are repeated throughout the following pages. These are the ones that will become major issues in your life.

The readings stress that you are the ultimate decider of your fate. The stars may indicate the hand you were dealt at birth, but it is up to you to play that hand well enough to achieve your goals. Also, bear in mind that every "bad" aspect of a chart also has a "good" side. How it is expressed is really up to you. We tend to work at expressing ourselves more positively most of the time and only lapse into the negative behavior described when depressed, angry or scared. Or it is possible that some aspects may better describe your personality or behavior earlier in life. They may seem alien now because you have already worked through them.

A "Strength" number precedes each aspect description; this number takes into account how exact the aspect is, whether the aspect is a major or minor one, and whether an aspecting planet is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to act it out in your life.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Cancer Ascendant

No matter what sign your Sun is in, Cancer Rising indicates that you are sensitive, cautious and have a strong need for security. You love the water, and if possible you will probably live near a river, lake or stream. No matter what your sex, you are domestic and maternal, and your home life is the most important element in your life. Since you do not crave the spotlight and can be cautious to the point of paranoia, you may have difficulty achieving your material goals in life. Your greatest success and personal satisfaction can be found in an occupation requiring you to deal with the public and to help others.

You have a phenomenal memory and never forget a hurt. Your emotions are very sensitive, so you are overly cautious in matters of the heart. For your peace of mind you require a peaceful and harmonious environment, and will react emotionally to any situation that is stressful or upsetting. You become sentimentally attached to mementos and other items of nostalgia, and will never part with possessions that commemorate past memories.

Physically, your problem areas are your stomach, digestive system, skin, chest and breast. Ulcers are a common problem with Cancer Rising. Your emotional state strongly affects your health, and genuine TLC is the best preventive measure you can take.

In appearance you are probably of short to medium height and have a wide chest (or a full bosom). Your face is full and round (and usually beautiful), and your eyes are full-lidded and may be green. Your hands and feet are proportionately smaller than the rest of you. As you age, be careful to watch your weight, especially around the middle.

Sun in Sagittarius

Sagittarians have a strong need for freedom and self-expression. Ruled by Jupiter, the mythological King of the Gods, you love adventure, travel, exploration, flirting, gambling, and--most of all--truth seeking. You are constantly looking for new opportunities to accomplish your goals in life, and for this reason you are not likely to miss much. Just be careful that your optimism does not swell into over- confidence and laziness so that you sit back and do nothing as chances pass you by.

You pursue your personal and professional goals with great vigor, but are quite likely to get distracted along the way when something (or someone) else seems more interesting and challenging. Sagittarians are well known for being socially active--even promiscuous. This is especially true for the men, who take on the womanizing qualities of Jupiter himself. Natives of both sexes are usually attractive and well-dressed, and they have a knack for setting new fashion trends.

In your relationships with others you are frank and honest, sometimes brutally so. It's not that you mean to be, but not everyone can take so much raw truth at one time. You enjoy physical activity and can grow restless without it. You have little regard for customary social etiquette and prefer to behave in a nonconventional manner. Existing rules of conduct are no more than a charade to you, and you refuse to play. You thoroughly enjoy socializing with your friends, but they must learn to take your blunt outspokenness.

Just like their ruler, Jupiter, Sagittarians can have a very nasty, thunder-and-lightning kind of temper. But once the storm passes, they return to their sunny selves; they don't hold grudges like Scorpions. In fact, they can be very philosophical about such outbursts and quickly identify a higher meaning to them. In fact, Sagittarians always look for a deeper meaning behind everything. They continually ponder over the secrets and great mysteries of the Universe.

Romantically, you seek a long-lasting and deep relationship. You must have a special close intimacy with your partner that transcends sex. Although you may spend your youth being somewhat promiscuous, in the long run you realize that casual sex is not satisfying to you. It is important that your lover help you grow rather than try to limit you.

Sun in the Sixth House

As a child you were probably quite shy and preferred to stay on the sidelines rather than jump into the midst of competition. Although you were very self-conscious in your youth, every task you undertook was done well--and you maintain and improve upon this quality as you mature. You expect perfection from yourself--and nothing less.

Since you are rather submissive in nature, you must be careful not to be dominated by others in your life. If you let them run your affairs, you will regret it and will be very unhappy in such relationships. Be more self-confident and less self-critical. If you think more of yourself, others' opinion of you will also be raised.

You have a gift for organizing your affairs and are willing to work hard for what you get. Business comes before pleasure, and you willingly delay a pleasure trip if there is work to be gotten out of the way first. You are quite serious about your long-range goals in life and exercise great self-discipline in achieving them. Be careful to maintain good health care and eating habits in order to avoid bad health.

In your love life, you prefer to have a steady, long-term relationship rather than to engage in a series of flings. Your lover must also be a loyal friend to you and must be trustworthy. The extremely outgoing, life-of-the-party types are not for you, although they may be attractive to you at first. Don't let your relationship get into a rut so that you become bored with your partner. Be sure that you introduce some variety into your love life.

Moon in Aquarius

With your Moon in Aquarius you are highly imaginative and should direct this energy into creative channels. You are very open-minded about the changing trends in society and can adapt quite easily.

Most of all you love to shock others with your opinions, which often violate taboos. You can see the need for old arbitrary restrictions to be cast aside. Freedom is very important to you, but you must sometimes remember to extend the same freedom to your partner.

You are a mixture of radical thought and conservative action and are sometimes plagued by anxiety and tension. Often you take on others' problems or causes without getting anything in return.

In relationships you seek a person who is somewhat unusual. You look for a companion who can share many interests with you. In business you need a stable partner who can make good practical use of your creative imagination and keep you grounded. Metaphysics and occult sciences are also of interest to you.

The one drawback of this moon placement is a tendency to gossip and spread rumors. Although this may be done with the best of intentions, you may not enjoy dealing with the consequences when you are identified as the source. Physically, your areas of weakness are varicose veins, eye afflictions and ulcers on your legs.

Moon in the Seventh House

With this Moon placement you acquire Libra-like qualities in your emotional life, and you constantly seek balance and harmony in that area. The friends you choose to have around you will be those to whom you offer emotional support and security, and they will be extremely close to you. You may also choose a marriage partner who offers the same qualities.

Although you are not overly emotional yourself (unless you have an emphasis in water in other areas of your chart), you attract others who are in order to teach you about your own emotions. You understand yourself best through your interactions with others. For this and other reasons, persons with this Moon placement often marry (or form other permanent love commitments) early in life. It is important for you to have someone to share in your life.

You are always willing to help a friend in need. In your domestic life, you often guide your partner through the intricacies of a marriage relationship. You require a sensitive partner who is willing to listen to your advice and trust you enough to follow your suggestions. It's not that you will necessarily rule your partner; on the contrary, you truly seek a totally equal relationship. Be sure your partner considers it as equal as you do. Learn when to let your advice go unspoken.

Mercury in Capricorn

With Mercury in the sign Capricorn you are a deep, serious thinker. You have a very practical and methodical mind and are not afraid of a hard day's work. Although you may learn rather slowly, you can be sure that you will absorb your lessons thoroughly. You have a wonderful "matter of fact" manner and would be an excellent teacher or diplomat.

You rarely waste time with idle or foolish chatter and often find it hard to tolerate others who do. You take life very seriously (as is reflected in your dry wit) and rarely enjoy frivolous and lighthearted activities. When making plans you consider all possible angles and proceed with caution and perseverance.

You are very observant and try to see things from a realistic viewpoint. When others get lost in the minor details of a project, you're the one who brings the group back to the main point of discussion so progress can be made. Your senses are highly developed, and you make good use of them to experience all the intricacies of life. For instance, you can probably taste a meal and then list the spices it contains, or witness an event and then recall details other witnesses miss.

Since you usually feel more secure staying with the status quo rather than undergoing risky changes, others generally see you as conservative and conformist. It is important to you that you have a position of respect in your community. Your ambition and willingness to work hard for what you want often win you positions of authority, or give you the courage to build a business of your own.

Mercury in the Seventh House

Traditionally, this placement of Mercury indicates that you are attracted to partners much younger than yourself. You get along well with others because you are a natural peacemaker. You seek the company of those you consider your intellectual equals, and you enjoy lively discussion. On challenging projects, you work best with others. You'll gain maturity by lessons learned through relationships.

Venus in Aquarius

With this placement of Venus, you require a great deal of freedom in relationships and will resist being tied down. You are also willing to provide this freedom to your partner, and you are not jealous or possessive. You look at your feelings intellectually and can appear aloof or impersonal to others. This Aquarian detachment gives you the ability to stand back and look at the situation more clearly. Just don't become so distant that you cannot empathize with your loved ones and offer them solace.

You may have felt that love was not freely expressed in your home when you were growing up. One challenge you face is to learn to be warm and understanding in love relationships. It is very important to you that your lover be a friend as well.

In your love relationships you prefer a partner who is unique and a little off-beat by society's standards. You need a lover who can respect your need for personal freedom and your own individual identity. Because you are so afraid of being tied down, it is difficult for you to establish and maintain long-term love relationships.

You are rebellious and "negatively suggestible" in your love affairs. That is, the best way to get you to do something is to demand that you do just the opposite. You can be extremely stubborn at times and can turn ice cold when you are hurt. Once you have committed yourself to a partner, you are loyal and truthful and are willing to extend the same personal freedom to your lover that you demand.

Venus in the Seventh House

You have a friendly and loving nature, and you are happiest when you are in a relationship. You are more interested in achieving harmony than in dominating your partner. Traditionally, this placement of Venus indicates that you will have a happy marriage and that your partner will be attractive and/or wealthy. With your keen sense of give and take, you would be an excellent diplomat or peacemaker.

Mars in Libra

With Mars in Libra, you prefer peaceful social exchange rather than hot-tempered disputes. Yet, you also seek constant balance by arguing both sides of any situation. In an effort to survive in a world that is often less than peaceful, you must develop the art of negotiation and compromise. You are a natural at working in harmony with a team toward a common goal.

Since you are quite charming, you can often persuade others to see your side without having to resort to argument. You are highly intuitive and seem to know just how to "hook" people with your charm. Although you really don't want to manipulate or control anyone, all is fair in love and war.

You seek a certain amount of refinement and social grace in your partner. Appearances are important to you, and you are concerned about what others think of you. It is likely that your partner will be physically attractive as well as poised and tactful. You are very attentive and will go to extreme lengths to please your partner.

You often instigate change in your relationships and become bored quickly with any that become static. Just be sure that you do not provoke change just for the sake of change; learn to recognize which elements of your relationship should be preserved and which should be thrown out. It is important to you that any relationship you have maintain a quality of fairness.

Mars in the Third House

You are very assertive intellectually, and you enjoy debate and friendly arguments. You may have many disagreements with your brothers and sisters, if you have any, especially when you are young. Avoid impulsive thinking to achieve better judgment. Your mind is constantly racing, and this can make you nervous and high-strung. Meditation may help still your mind to allow your intuition to guide you.

Jupiter in Capricorn

With your practical, organized, steadfast manner, you have the ability to attain great material success. You have the patience and perseverance to work hard for what you want, and you will keep trying long after others have given up. It is important to you that you have a good reputation in your community. You have a tendency to be too serious and somber (even as a child). Remember to make time for recreation and relaxation.

Jupiter in the Sixth House

You gain satisfaction through helping others, and you would do well in a profession which would allow you to selflessly serve others. Because you are dependable and loyal, you inspire cooperation among your co-workers. Avoid a tendency to become a workaholic. You will enjoy good health, as long as you do not over-indulge in food or drink. Your job may bring you to faraway lands, or you may work with foreigners.

Saturn in Pisces

You are very intuitive and highly imaginative. You are tolerant of the shortcomings of others. Peace and quiet are necessary for your peace of mind, and you may prefer to spend much of your time alone. You may vacillate between emotional overreaction and cold rationalism, or you may encounter these extremes in your relations with others. One of your greatest challenges is to avoid a gloomy, depressed disposition. You cannot save the world and must learn to tell the difference between your problems and those of your loved ones.

Saturn in the Eighth House

You are patient, thrifty and hard working, and you enjoy accumulating material wealth. Using your resources responsibly, rather than as a means to control others, is one of the lessons of this Saturn placement. You have a strong sexual nature, but you may tend to neglect your social and sexual gratification in order to concentrate on acquiring greater wealth.

Uranus in Taurus

(1934-1942)

You are very practical and resourceful, and you enjoy acquiring material possessions. You attract others using your strong magnetism and charm, and your love life will have many unexpected ups and downs, as will your finances (both ruled by Taurus). Avoid a tendency to be stubborn and unbending. Share your good fortune with others.

Uranus in the Tenth House

You are very independent and innovative, and the career you choose will be an unusual one. If possible, you should work for yourself or in a position which allows you to take the initiative. You are interested in metaphysical subjects. As a futuristic thinker, you would do well in technical or scientific fields, or as an astrologer. If Uranus is afflicted, you may suffer sudden setbacks in your career.

Neptune in Virgo

(1928-1942)

You absorb new information like a sponge and can apply it practically. You are scientifically oriented and may be skeptical of metaphysical or psychic matters. Your greatest satisfaction will come from serving those in need. Avoid a tendency to be critical of others.

Neptune in the Second House

You are extremely sensitive and will benefit from following your intuitive hunches. Because you have faith in the Universe to take care of you, you place little emphasis on money or other material possessions. For this reason, you tend to be generous and share with those less fortunate. If Neptune is afflicted, you may have a strong insecurity about money which results in desperate acts of fraud or deception.

Pluto in Cancer

(1914-1939)

Your generation saw many changes in your family life brought about by war, poverty and the women's movement. National pride and a strong work ethic dominated society. You are strongly intuitive and psychic, and you have a strong desire for emotional security.

Pluto in the First House

You are very intense and have a magnetic personality which attracts people to you. Others may find you difficult to understand, and you may become a loner. Your self-image will be radically transformed through crises. You are gentle and sensitive and have healing abilities. If Pluto is afflicted, you may be skeptical and inconsiderate. Avoid a temptation to manipulate and control others.

Taurus Midheaven

You will do best in a career that offers steady growth, a career in which you can study what works and then be the one to provide stability and direction for the organization. As long as you are earning a good income, enjoy positive relations with your coworkers, and have a little beauty where you work, you will be content to work quietly. You are unlikely to push for change or to be combative in the workplace, unless someone affronts your pride.

You are good at cultivating relations with people, as opposed to things, and will extend yourself to others in the workplace. Your network of personal connections and inside knowledge, gained over time, makes you quite a resourceful employee. You have faith in common sense and the existing order. Change throws you off-balance. If you are emotionally stressed, you may regard acquiring material possessions to be some sort of solution, which it is not. You could also become surprisingly stubborn and vocal in your displeasure. Remember that you have developed many resources. Concentrate upon cultivating and using them for the common good.

Occupations consistent with your stable, practical style of work include official, executive, artist, singer, musician, designer, beautician, banker, business investor, property manager, farmer, stockbreeder, evangelist, advertiser, builder or public servant. For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the 10th house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of Venus, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

North Node in Sagittarius

You have a very active imagination and a sharp mind. In past lives you have been curious and restless, and you never developed an ability to concentrate. In this lifetime you will face your resistance to committing yourself to anything (or anyone). You will learn to set future goals and to develop deep philosophies about life, all while undertaking a quest for higher knowledge. Instead of living life as superficially as possible and avoiding commitment, you will search for your role in the greater universe.

North Node in the Sixth House

In past lives you have sought to escape responsibility through drugs or alcohol and/or by becoming helpless so that others must take care of you. Now it is your turn to be of service to others. You are a natural born healer, although you may not be aware of this gift. At some point in this life you will work with hospitals or other institutions dedicated to serving the needs of society.

Chiron in Gemini

Chiron is a minor planet that orbits in between Saturn and Uranus. In the astrology chart, Chiron serves as a bridge between normal consciousness and higher consciousness. Chiron can bring limitations, but it is also connected with finding ways to overcome limitations, to heal and to grow. Chiron spends an average of four years in any one sign, so everyone born in the same years will have the same sign placement. Chiron's sign placement is most likely to influence your life if Chiron has many aspects or is near one of the four angles in your chart.

With Chiron strong in Gemini, you have an active mind and definite opinions. Since you can think for yourself, you could challenge conventional or lazy thinking. Freedom is an important theme in your life. You probably think that greater freedom can be achieved by living and working smarter and more efficiently. You are not a rigid person. You are playful and like to try new things. It may take some hard knocks to motivate you, but once you decide to be all that you can be, you inspire people with your example. You push the envelope with your flexible and creative solutions. With Chiron strong in your chart, this placement helps makes you innovative, abstract, and perpetually youthful. If Chiron has many challenging aspects, you could turn to travel as an escape from your problems.

Chiron in the Twelfth House

You are brilliant as a servant of the people. Not only do you have a big, caring heart, but you are on the forefront of what is new. This placement challenges you to be selfless. You are most likely to grow through confronting painful limitations and problems. This can include injuries, ill health, incarceration, and prejudice. There is a danger of trying to escape through alcohol or drugs. If you encounter the suffering of people less fortunate than you, your reaction to their plight could be to volunteer your services.

Planets in Aspect

Mercury opposite Ascendant (Strength: 8.95)

Communication is very important to you, and your mind is sharper and more creative when you have a partner you can bounce your thoughts and ideas off of. You are prone to peer pressure, and it matters a great deal what your friends think of you and your ideas. You may at times go along with what others say just in order to gain their approval. This results in people not taking you seriously when you do express an opinion, and this can be very frustrating for you.

You are an excellent conversationalist and can fascinate your group of friends with your sharp mind. You love to debate issues just for the mental exercise, even if you don't feel strongly about the position you argue. You are also prone to exaggerate or stretch the truth when trying to make your point, especially when it comes to your own background or experience. Since you enjoy communicating with others, you would enjoy a career in public relations or another field which would allow you to be in constant contact with the public.

In your relationships your partner will serve as a mirror, reflecting your thoughts and ideas back to you from a different perspective. You are rather independent and will not allow anyone to restrict your freedom. In order to achieve success, you often seek relationships with people in a position to help you achieve your goals. There is no problem with this, as long as you remember them when you make it big.

Sun conjunct North Node (Strength: 5.37)

This aspect tends to subsume your individuality in service to your community. You are sensitive to others and very observant. You could be shy and quiet. This aspect makes you a gentle person with a calm core. You have a strong commitment to your family. Your living needs tend to be simple.

Venus square BlackMoon (Strength: 5.28)

Something unusual about you could appeal to the public. You tend to be enthusiastic, but also intelligent and pragmatic. This aspect heightens your ability; things tend to come easily to you. You can seem to be ageless, timeless. You do not fear imperfection and chaos, but can learn to make use of them. Your social skills are strong, enabling you to effectively network with others. You can relate to the common man. You can become a force for unification between different groups. You can be nurturing with children.

Mars trine Chiron (Strength: 5.27)

This aspect gives you a confident, affable manner. As a child you were quite a handful for your parents with your impulsive behavior. A girl with this aspect could have been a tomboy. You do not allow yourself to be limited by the "accepted standards of femininity." You develop an interest in the different forms of sexual expression. Even if you have some physical limitation, you can be an outstanding athlete, displaying creativity and spontaneous improvisation. You are intelligent and highly coordinated. Hockey player Wayne Gretzky with this aspect said, "I skate to where the puck is going to be, not where it has been." Chiron can relate to healing and it is interesting that Wayne Gretzky's recuperative abilities tested much higher than those of any of his teammates. His career is partially but not entirely explained by all the hours that he put into hockey when he was young. In your career you could make innovations relating to movement or transportation. You are flirtatious and should have many possibilities to choose from. If Mars has challenging aspects, there is a danger of marrying an angry, abusing spouse, from whom you should immediately separate. You have plenty of courage and can make it your business to help the unfortunate.

Venus square Uranus (Strength: 5.07)

Among other things, this aspect indicates that you must be careful to get enough rest. Natives often have a high level of nervous energy and can easily "run down their batteries" if not careful. This nervous energy carries over into your business as well as social life. Your tendency to react spontaneously and intensely to others makes you appear to be emotionally erratic and aggressive.

You make friends easily but do not make commitments casually. You are attracted to persons who seem mysterious and unusual, but you immediately lose interest when they become "serious." If you do form close relationships, they will definitely be unconventional. You are very much a free spirit and do not care for the idea of belonging to anyone. In order for you to find happiness in a love relationship, you must be willing to meet your partner half way, even if it means giving up a little freedom yourself.

You can be promiscuous and oftentimes delight in defying convention. Your sexual desires are quite strong, and you must be careful not to jeopardize other aspects of your life in your pursuit of satisfaction of your many sexual fantasies. You should not deny these desires, but you should control them, not let them control you.

Career-wise, you must slow down your pace long enough to accept and carry out responsibility on the job. Unless you can demonstrate an ability to focus on tasks and patiently follow them through to a successful conclusion, you will not find promotions on the job easy.

Neptune square Chiron (Strength: 4.72)

There is a charming, vulnerable quality to you. You have the feeling and imagination of a Romantic poet, dedicated to an idealistic vision. You are far from naive, however, showing great wisdom about life from an early age. This aspect increases the level of your creative imagination, which could make you highly prolific and versatile as a storyteller, composer, actor, or singer. You put a lot of feeling into everything that you do. In addition to creative work, you could be attracted to the pharmaceutical industry, winemaking, charitable work, public service, and politics. If you ignore boundaries or rules, you could get into political or legal trouble. You can be very popular because you make people feel good. If you personally get involved with alcohol or drugs, look out for accidents.

Jupiter trine Uranus (Strength: 4.25)

If you take full advantage of your creative talents, you can achieve whatever goals you set for yourself. You are quick to recognize opportunity when it knocks, and some people would consider you extremely "lucky."

You could do well in a career in education, politics, law, and religion. You are a good leader and are especially good with children. People will often come to you with their problems.

It is essential that you have personal freedom, and you will fight anyone who tries to restrict you. Travel would be very mind-expanding for you, and you should take advantage of any opportunity to visit new lands.

You are always sincere (even with your enemies) and are warm toward your friends. You are very optimistic and have a good deal of faith in your abilities. You can become impatient with others who never seem to try to succeed but instead expect to fail before they begin.

You need total honesty from your love partner and will offer him or her much spiritual encouragement. You are well known among your friends for being unselfish and giving.

Uranus opposite BlackMoon (Strength: 4.21)

This aspect heightens your competitiveness and mental sharpness. You could enjoy and excel at sports. You think independently. You tend to be a dissenter and iconoclast - someone who challenges convention and popular thinking. Normally well-liked and generous, you can be almost cruel when confronting half-baked or lazy thought. You could have a talent for law as a profession. You could discover a love and talent for aviation. Modest and unassuming, you can coolly engage opponents in mental brinkmanship. No one says that you lack courage or are unwilling to take risks. If you become an artist or musician, you could stand out because you go for an effect that is different from what everyone else is doing. You like challenges. When it comes to defending equal human rights, you are progressive and modern.

Ascendant trine BlackMoon (Strength: 4.09)

You can project a confident and headstrong or cocky image. There is a danger of alcoholism with this aspect. However, you can also be a genuinely nice and popular person who helps others. Your active career will go through many changes; it will have its ups and downs. Golf seems to be a popular hobby. A movie about an amazing runner with this aspect who died in a car crash after losing control was entitled "Without Limits," and that is a good summary of this aspect. Well-earned confidence is a good thing, but overconfidence can be very dangerous. Look up the meaning of hubris.

Jupiter trine Midheaven (Strength: 3.84)

Your strong sense of optimism and self-confidence inspire others, and they will readily come to your aid. Since childhood, you've had very harmonious relationships with authority figures (beginning with your parents and teachers). Although you know you are very talented, you don't need to brag about your accomplishments. You prefer to just live your life and let others judge you by your actions.

It's not enough for you to have a highly paid job. You want to be able to practice your most sacred principles and beliefs through your career. You must feel you're making a difference in the world, and that your work has some higher purpose. You would not last long in a job that required you to sacrifice your principles and ethics.

With your creative mind, you like to stay busy to avoid becoming bored. In addition to the work you do professionally, you also like to have special projects or hobbies for entertainment at home.

Saturn opposite Neptune (Strength: 3.53)

Although you are quite ambitious, you are also extremely fearful of failure and therefore shy away from competition. If someone challenges you, you often become critical and distrustful of them. Others react to this by becoming suspicious and distrustful of you, and this leads to continued conflicts. It is difficult for you to understand the concept of friendly competition.

You seem to draw people to you who are deceitful and untrustworthy, and then you point them out as examples of how nobody can be trusted in an attempt to justify your own questionable motives. Although you want to be idealistic and give people the benefit of the doubt, you always seem to pick those who will rip you off. Then you complain about being victimized.

It is difficult for you to tell when someone is lying to you because you always want so badly to believe the best. This is like an engraved invitation to those who would take advantage of you. It is common for people with this aspect to be generous with a loved one and then later find that they've been taken, emotionally and financially. The lesson here is not that nobody can be trusted, but rather that you should be more careful about who you trust.

You will continue to suffer disappointments in life until you are able to see things more realistically. Some people with this aspect retreat into themselves and become loners in self-defense. You should be careful not to get caught up in a depressed mood; you could develop psychosomatic illnesses as a result.

Uranus semi-square Chiron (Strength: 3.14)

This aspect gives you a million ideas a minute. You have more irons in the fire than you know what to do with. Some of them will turn out all right while others will get you into trouble. Your mind is always calculating the odds, both for yourself and for others. This can make you valuable, but tire you out. Especially when you are young, try to expose your mind to as broad a range of information as you can - this will make you and your calculations more accurate. You can appear hard to get to know and mysterious, but the truth is that you want what is best for the whole. You can work behind the scenes to good effect. You tend to be a social activist with a mental or even mystic orientation. To deal with depression, before seeking medical help, first see if it helps to get your thoughts down into a personal journal.

Pluto square Midheaven (Strength: 2.91)

You are highly ambitious and set lofty goals for yourself professionally. Although you are anxious to succeed, it would be unwise for you to take unethical shortcuts or to step on others in your climb to the top. This aspect is particularly karmic in nature, and what goes around surely will come back around to haunt you.

Because your emotional depth is evident to others, you may often be approached for advice or guidance. While you may be able to be of assistance by counseling others, be sure you remember that they are running their own lives. Resist the temptation to control and manipulate others for your own gratification. Instead, try to empower them so they can transform their own lives.

You have a strong desire to help cure the ills of society and make the world in general a better place. Although you seek material success, your greatest reward will be obtained by using any power you gain to help those less fortunate. Others will be inspired by your dedication and will follow your example.

Moon square BlackMoon (Strength: 2.75)

Your career and relationship with the public could be a stormy one. You are a naturally intense person who loves working hard. Many respect you for this, while others in your field are put off by what they see as your extreme competitiveness. You have a strong drive to pull the wraps off the truth. You do not want to sweep anything under the rug. You are in touch with your own instinctual self. You refuse to be part of hypocrisy.

Moon inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 2.65)

This combination indicates that your Moon sign and Rising sign are very different (read the descriptions of the sign of your Moon and your Ascendant). Because of this, the image that you project to others is very unlike the real inner you. In maintaining balance between these different sides of yourself, you have developed emotional discipline, and this allows you to adjust more easily than many to the demands of life.

You put the needs of your loved ones before your own, and in the process you are often taken advantage of. You are always the first to volunteer when something needs to be done, but you are also the last to ask when you have needs to satisfy. Sometime in life you must develop the ability to say "no" to those who would abuse or belittle your generous assistance. Devote your compassionate energy to those who appreciate your help and who return it in kind.

Your love life is very volatile and subject to frequent changes. At times it may help to slow down your pace on purpose and allow you and your partner a break from your frenzied pace. It may also help if you occasionally spend time away from each other. Perpetual change in itself can become a rut into which you fall. A little distance can give you a better perspective.

Saturn square Chiron (Strength: 2.25)

This increases your activity level. You are not a passive person. Your activities will be devoted to investigating, learning, mastering, knowing, and controlling. Astrology appeals to the desire that this aspect gives you to have the complete picture. You are a thorough, careful researcher. You are quite resourceful. You need time alone with your thoughts and imagination. A critic could label you a moody, introspective control freak. But you are also an idealist. You could rebel against both your father and against bureaucracy. The main drawback of this aspect is that you must deal with self-criticism, paranoia, and fear. You can be somewhat distant and impersonal -- you regard even people as objects to be studied. You can battle a chronic illness. The end result of all your hard work and experience is increased consciousness. If you seize the opportunity, you have the ability to be ahead of your time.

North Node semi-square BlackMoon (Strength: 2.06)

This aspect helps to make you popular and well-connected. You are quicker than most men and naturally assume a leadership position. Probably a hard worker, you can be talented, smart, prolific, and a perfectionist. You are a realist, by which is meant that you live in the real world.

Moon conjunct Venus (Strength: 2.02)

You are sincere in your relations with others. You make friends easily, and can make adjustments to new friends to allow them to feel comfortable with you. You are also quite sensitive, and your feelings are easily hurt by harshness or rudeness. You try to be civil to everyone, even those who are not civil to you. You can also be quite tactful and diplomatic. Your mood can be so "nice," that people may wonder whether you have ulterior motives, and they may distrust you for this reason.

You take great pride in your personal appearance. Your type of loving is gentle and sensitive, though passionate and intense. You are good at anticipating your lover's needs and satisfying them. This often results in a good marriage for natives with this aspect.

Your youth was a pleasant one, and you enjoy having a comfortable home of your own as an adult. You are generous with others less fortunate than you. This is not to ease your conscience, but because you genuinely are concerned about others.

Your one problem in relationships is that you will have a hard time adjusting to thinking in terms of a couple. You are used to having only yourself to please. You must also be careful not to bring your family into the relationship.

South Node conjunct Chiron (Strength: 1.96)

This aspect causes you to work on behalf of the public. You side with and you connect with the average person.

Saturn trine Ascendant (Strength: 1.75)

You are willing to work hard to achieve your goals and feel obligated to develop your creative talents fully. You don't expect overnight success and you don't take unnecessary risks. It is possible that your parents were not able to lavish you with gifts as a child, yet you are thankful that they taught you to take care of yourself.

Material success is very important to you, and you may even judge others by their net worth. You seek respect from your peers and like to live out the legend of the person who fought their way to the top against all odds. You want depth from those around you, not pleasant superficiality.

Your friends may be few, but you are quite loyal to them and for the most part your friendships probably last over the years. Before entering into a romance, you will check out the references of your prospective partner before making any commitment. Again, you seek depth in your lover; you are not interested in a purely physical affair.

Others may consider you to be a loner, and it is true that you isolate yourself from others at times. You do not appear to be a warm, caring person on the outside--unless a person gets to know you very well. You need to lower the walls you have built between your inner self and others to allow them to get to know you. Your cool exterior can be intimidating.

Uranus conjunct Midheaven (Strength: 1.71)

You are very independent and insist on following your own unique path in life. Those who try to make you conform to tradition will meet with vigorous resistance, and others may consider you a rebel or subversive. You insist on doing things your way, and any effort to push you in one direction will result in your choosing exactly the opposite direction.

You are impatient with people who seem to be stuck in a rut and are often tempted to "shake up" their reality by shocking them. For this reason, you may have had difficulties with authority figures, including your parents and teachers. Your need for personal freedom is quite strong, and your approach to a career will be very unorthodox. Attempting to conform to traditional expectations of you will result in your achieving little satisfaction in life.

With your sharp, innovative mind, you could excel in fields such as computers, science and technology, engineering, social reform or the metaphysical sciences (including astrology). Many inventors share this placement of Uranus. Your desire for progressive change and your willingness to consider concepts which others cannot grasp make you a futuristic thinker, and since you are ahead of your time, others will often find it difficult to understand you.

Sun inconjunct Pluto (Strength: 1.62)

With this aspect you tend to overreact to others' expectations of you and do much more than you need to; yet all the while you feel that you are not doing enough. You carry a guilt burden with you through life which forces you to prove to yourself (and others) that you are doing your share. You demand too much of yourself and are your own worst critic. Avoid comparing yourself to your co-workers and rating your performance against theirs. You can also become obsessed with pleasing those whom you consider to be your superiors. Their power intrigues you.

In your quest for approval from others, you work very hard and may incur physical sickness or injury if you make unreasonable demands upon your body. It is quite likely that you will achieve your goals in life, but you must learn to develop your natural potential. It may be necessary for you to make sacrifices in order to succeed in life, but be careful not to make these sacrifices for the sake of others' careers.

You should cultivate a healthy sense of selfishness. Learn to recognize your limitations and work within them. You need an advisor whom you can trust to help you make your plans. When you begin to see your efforts toward success bear fruit, you will learn to like yourself more. Learn to relax and not worry so much.

In love relationships you are very affectionate but also somewhat demanding. This is because you expect to be lavished with loving and your lover may not be so predisposed. You may attempt to manipulate your lover with your generosity.

Sun trine Midheaven (Strength: 1.53)

You are highly ambitious and are willing to work hard to reach the lofty goals you set for yourself. Your parents and other early role models instilled you with a strong moral code and work ethic, and these qualities inspire trust and confidence in your peers. Because you are willing to cooperate and compromise with others, your associates enjoy working with you, and this makes you a good supervisor, manager or administrator.

Success may seem to come easily to you, although your achievements are actually the product of hard work and careful planning. With your high levels of self-confidence and creativity, you can achieve virtually anything you set your sights on.

As you climb the ladder of success, you'll remember those who've assisted you, giving credit where it's due. You understand that honoring others contributes to your success rather than hindering it.

Sun semi-square BlackMoon (Strength: 1.43)

You have a strong need for attention. While still in your teens, you may figure out an innovative way to get attention. You can be good at improvising and quite inventive. You have a quick, high-energy style. You can be witty and spontaneous. You are true to yourself and quite a character.

Venus semi-square North Node (Strength: 1.34)

You could be successful at mass marketing. You can overcome the barriers between people. You could be attracted to an eclectic religious faith. This aspect gives you a sense of wonder and passion. Ability for public speaking. Possibly sexually active at a young age.

Sun opposite Chiron (Strength: 1.33)

Experiences in your life have marked you as kind of a tough guy. The result is that you can have close to a fortress mentality, in which you look out for yourself and are determined that no one is going to put anything over on you. This aspect increases your practical intelligence -- you will probably enjoy some success in life, but you will hide that you need the success in order to alleviate inner pain that is left over from childhood. You are able to turn adversity into something constructive. You are quite comfortable being the center of attention -- you will find and perform activities which ensure that you stay there. You can be a fierce and capable competitor. Look for alleviating supportive aspects in your horoscope, especially to the Sun and Chiron -- the activities indicated by those aspects are the ones that will actually bring you peace. You can also turn your powerful mind towards searching for life's deeper meanings. Setbacks or illness might be the impetus for doing that.

Mercury sextile BlackMoon (Strength: 0.87)

You are very creative. You tend to be hard-working and unpretentious. You could have a voracious appetite for reading and learning. You have a good memory and you think clearly and concisely. You could find success as a lawyer. You could be noted for your oratory or for your singing voice. You try to encourage people to think for themselves. This aspect does require that you develop a strong moral character in your youth or there can be a tendency to take shortcuts. It is possible for things to come too easily for your own good. You could think that the rules do not apply to you. When you put the focus on others, and don't take yourself too seriously, you can have gifts of insight, healing, and humor.

Moon semi-square North Node (Strength: 0.69)

Your activities tend to shake up society. You are kind of a challenging trouble-maker. In your private life you could actually be shy and interested in history.

Neptune square North Node (Strength: 0.69)

This aspect causes you to see things from a different perspective. You are driven to explore the mysterious and obscure. You have an active mind and a great imagination. You could excel at research. You can introduce new methods. You see the goal so clearly that you are willing to put up with the difficulties and upset involved in reaching it. This makes you forceful and effective.

Venus sesquiquadrate Chiron (Strength: 0.63)

This aspect increases your social intelligence. You enjoy socializing with your friends and are comfortable at parties. You understand motivational psychology and you could excel in public relations. At a low level, you could find yourself associating with immoral friends, while at a high level you could learn the power of love and non-violence to achieve social equality. You could grow to become a social and political activist. Your parents could have indulged you. You could play the role of flirt, playboy, or seductress. Investments could turn bad. Working with a group or with a partner could either jumpstart or revive your career. This aspect can sometimes bring health problems to women.

Moon square Uranus (Strength: 0.38)

You can be very impulsive emotionally. Your temper is easily sparked, and you can explode at those you love most. You must learn to control your temper, and face the fact that you cannot always have things your way. You may appear emotionally erratic to others.

You are quite talented and could be a good: teacher, politician, writer, or researcher. You are a believer in equal rights and may defy authority when it does not appear to be honoring someone's rights.

You must be willing to meet your partner halfway for marriage to work. You believe that marriage means one partner being dominant over the other. Yet you really need an egalitarian relationship. You must convince yourself that this is possible before you can achieve it.

You can be impatient and impulsive, and therefore may seem "accident prone." You may not have been allowed to assert your will as a child. So you tend to defy authority by rejecting the responsibility that it imposes. You are a rebel at heart.

Venus inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 0.37)

You enjoy serving those you love and yet feel that you are not entitled to ask their assistance in return. In order to win the approval and affection of others, you will constantly put their needs before your own. You are also the first to make major concessions whenever there is a disagreement. While you do this to gain appreciation from others, you rarely receive any. Instead, others expect you to serve them without regard for your own needs.

In your career you would do well in a job that would allow you to serve others. You always give 150% on the job and are a valued employee. Although this may make you popular at work, just be sure that others do not take advantage of your willingness to work extra hard by allowing you to do their share of the work as well. Remember that you are at least as talented and capable as anyone else around you, and that you deserve the kind of treatment from others that you so freely give.

You have a talent for making yourself very irresistible to your partner. While it is nice to have this ability, you also must recognize that your inner beauty is at least as important as the artful image you project. If you continuously apologize for what you perceive as your shortcomings, others will begin to find fault as well. If you will relax and just be yourself, you will find that many people will love and respect you for the person you really are.

Mercury trine Uranus (Strength: 0.16)

You are on a campaign for self-improvement. Your outer life is in harmony with your inner values, otherwise you would not be happy in life. You have your own set of spiritual values, and you understand occult matters. Most likely you are very intuitive and have psychic abilities. You are fascinated by the unexplained, and you seek the truth behind these occurrences.

You act with self-confidence and speak what is on your mind. Occupations in the fields of: teaching, scientific research, philosophy, psychology or social programs would be satisfying to you. You are a natural leader and can inspire others to develop their own potential.

In love relationships you have a natural feel for what will work and what won't work. Your lover may also provide moral support and help motivate you to act on your many good ideas. Or you may take your lover's innovative ideas and refine them into practical suggestions.

Moon trine Mars (Strength: 0.08)

Your emotions are intense, and you may often funnel this intensity into creative projects. You have a large number of friends and enjoy good relationships with your loved ones. Because you are willing to compromise, others find you a pleasure to be around. You have mastered the art of relating to others and are able to be firm without being offensive or abrasive. On the rare occasions that you become really angry, you don't experience feelings of hate.

You respect the rights and privacy of others and expect the same in return. Because you are reasonably self-confident, it is not easy for you to be threatened by associates or competitors. You meet challenges with acceptance and determination to get through them. Because you are highly creative, this is usually not much of a problem. Others respect your coolness in times of crisis, especially children.

Children are especially drawn to you because you allow them to be the age they are and don't expect them to act like adults. You are warm and affectionate and don't suffer from hangups regarding rejection and insecurity. The only people you really avoid are those who are dishonest or insincere with you. Because you are emotionally independent, you find it easy to sever ties which are not beneficial for you.

You will be a good parent, although you may be somewhat permissive. You always give others a second chance when they "fail" you and don't expect perfection in those around you. You can see the good in everyone without concentrating only on the flaws they have.

Sun square Neptune (Strength: 0.06)

Often this aspect indicates an inferiority complex which is probably traceable to your early parental conditioning. Your parents may have misunderstood your need to assert your own individuality and tried to curb your self-expression. In self-defense you may have built emotional walls around yourself to shield you against others who would hurt you. Although you are highly creative and eager to do something with your many talents, you fear failure to such an extent that you often may not even try.

You shy away from intense competition because you underestimate your ability to emerge as the victor. Also, you don't like the idea of beating anyone in competition because you don't want to hurt their feelings. You run away from your responsibilities and then feel guilty about it. You need to learn to love yourself and put yourself first when dealing with others.

In your career it would be best to start out with a job that requires a minimum of responsibility on your part. As you gain experience and realize that you can indeed succeed, you can set higher goals for yourself. You are very sensitive and emotionally vulnerable, and you must be careful not to let others use you.

In matters of love, be realistic about your expectations of your partner; don't ask the impossible and therefore set yourself up for disappointment. If you are unsure about how to assert yourself in your relationships, let your partner take the lead and then react accordingly. Building a successful relationship will be a gradual process for you; don't rush in without looking at least twice.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Earth

You are in touch with the real world. More than others, you know where the rubber meets the road; persistent study has shown you how to make things happen in a practical sort of way. Your nature is well-suited to the adult world of responsibilities, which you master at a young age. Not impulsive with your resources, you would only start a business after careful study, but you would manage it well. You enjoy the satisfaction that comes not just from starting projects, but from finishing them. Your steady, organized approach is actually more productive in the long-run than is that of the quick, flashy types. You know how to establish a pace and keep it.

Do not let your awareness of the material world make you unappreciative of the spiritual plane that underpins our life here -- to which others may be more sensitive than you. Practicality is fine, but try to understand that dreams, feelings, and enthusiasms are also important and should not be squelched. Others might surprise you with what their optimistic risk-taking is able to achieve. You can be so cautious and reserved that some people find you conservative and dull. If you yourself become bored or depressed, admit that security isn't everything and try to be more spontaneous. Open up to the new and follow your bliss (in a careful sort of way).

Abundant Air

You seem to live for mental exploration. Discovering and communicating the connections between ideas, people, and places is your function in life. Your active mind is good at identifying new frontiers whose basics you quickly master, so that you end up knowing something about almost everything. You have a dispassionate nature that coolly considers the pros and cons of a situation, able to place logic above personal emotion. From your mental viewpoint, emotions look irrational. You make a good negotiator, sales person, communicator, arbitrator, analyst, and information processor. Ideas flow quickly for you. While impersonal and dispassionate, you nonetheless thrive on communication and social interaction. At your best, you strive to understand and accept people, not to change them. Courageously, you adhere to principles. You appreciate culture, structure, and systems.

Your greatest strength is also your weakness, namely too much coolness from placing head above heart. Leaders must be able to follow their hearts without being indecisive or equivocating. And you ignore your real connection to others if you use your mental gifts to coldly manipulate them. Try to avoid isolation by functioning as part of a team in which your logic, analysis, and communication skills are put to good use. Work with others who may be more practical, sensitive, or passionate than are you. Don't keep your good ideas inside, but write them down and communicate them to others.

Lack of Fire

You are willing to let flashier individuals take center-stage and lead the way. You are probably unenthusiastic about change and are passive when it comes to creating change through leadership. You may be aggressive in a defensive way, but lack the self-confidence to take the offensive. Lacking the impulsiveness of Fire, you are more likely to be a careful worker and a reliable mate, though you could stand to be less detached and more personally involved with your spouse and family.

A lack of planets in Fire signs can be offset by a Fire sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the houses of Life.

Abundant Substance

With abundant planets in the houses of substance, you know your place in the material world. You know how to extract value and give value via your business, work, and career activities. The rules of the world come easily to you. Others admire and depend on your hard work and practical nature. If you get depressed, make time for recreation and family.

Abundant Relationships

With abundant planets in these houses, relationships and communications with others are likely to be central to your life. You can help others by exchanging ideas and making connections between people. You will probably maintain active contact with a wide circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances. You keep abreast of new information via various media and your friends.

Lack of Endings

You live on the surface of things, afraid to look within at what you really feel and want. Perhaps your position is too precarious or the obligations too great to allow yourself this luxury. You feel forced to maintain your personal status quo. You come across to others as unfeeling. Because personal feelings do not distract you, you might make a good scientist, though be aware that the greatest scientists let intuitive feelings be their guide.

A lack of planets in the houses of Endings can be offset by abundant planets in Water signs.

Lack of Life

You could have difficulty envisioning or planning for the future. You are likely to accept the status quo, living in the past and present, but not actively striving to create the future. Lacking your own passionate goals, you are more likely to be a follower than a leader.

A lack of planets in the houses of Life can be offset by abundant planets in Fire signs.

Balanced Sign Modalities

In your chart, the planets are distributed in a balanced manner between the Cardinal, Fixed, and Mutable modalities. Ability to act and survive in the world is balanced with inner insight. You stick to your values and principles at the same time that you react quickly and adapt to changes. You have the ability to listen as well as to lead. You enjoy life, but also do not shrink from facing challenges.

Abundant Angular

An abundance of planets in the angular houses helps to give you drive and initiative. It makes you active in the external world. Expressing your individuality is important to you. You are probably a leader who enjoys challenges and can get things moving.

Lack of Succedent

A lack of planets in succedent houses gives you a certain emotional detachment. You do not pay much attention to the pleasures of the body or to cultivating a particular group of friends. Enjoying life is not the most important thing to you. You act not on the basis of feeling or principle, but from necessity. You tend to be a restless wanderer of either the world or the mind.

AstroIDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Pope Francis

A lack of planets in the Succedent houses can be offset by abundant planets in the Fixed signs.
