PLANET DEGREE SYMBOLISM

Sun, Sagittarius 26

Sagittarius 26: A FLAG-BEARER. A symbol of the enduring significance which tends to overshadow the more immediate interests or wholly selfish concerns of man, and the emphasis is on the natural supremacy of common ideals over mere individual ambitions. Implicit in the symbolism is the call for a high self-sacrifice, and for the development of such new dimensions of experience as will permit the self to realize its transcendental aspirations. Every resource of normal life is commandeered for the greater potentiality. Keyword: NOBILITY When positive, the degree is spiritual exaltation through some dramatic or vital service to all, and when negative, a resort to empty show or a demand for a false credit.

Moon, Aquarius 13

Aquarius 13: A BAROMETER. A symbol of man's great love for living his experience in advance, and of his gift for meeting every possible contingency by an effective estimation of his own potentials. He uses the power of the human mind for broad generalization or abstract insight, and balances this with the tendency of nature to operate at all points through quite specific and measurable dependabilities. He knows that life can always be made to reveal any pertinent details of its fundamental ordering. Keyword: INDICATION When positive, the degree is unusual keenness of observation and exceptional competence in judgment, and when negative, superficial uncertainty and a continual trimming to passing events.

Mercury, Capricorn 12

Capricorn 12: A STUDENT OF NATURE LECTURING. A symbol of the wide ramification in experience by which man achieves his greater opportunities, emphasized on the vicarious or intellectual side as he participates in events and shares meanings through the mind's eye alone. Here is direct fulfillment in consciousness. Life gains its illimitability as the individual discovers that he can master its endless facets through ever-expanding facilities of the reason. Keyword:

EXPLANATION When positive, the degree is self-confidence through the acquisition of knowledge and effective self-direction through the practical application of all values, and when negative, psychological smugness and unreasonable pride of intellect.

Venus, Aquarius 8

Aquarius 8: BEAUTIFULLY GOWNED WAX FIGURES. A symbol of the ineradicable vanity of the human spirit as it gathers strength not only from the finery it wears but from a superficial display of woman's form and man's reputation, here emphasized through personal idealizations. A strong psychological dynamic for individual effort comes from the direct influence of outstanding and even notorious people, and implicit in the static symbolism of the waxworks is a necessity to recognize and identify the values worthy of emulation. Keyword: IMPACT When positive, the degree is achievement through the effective dramatization of human character on some level of everyday understanding, and when negative, futile effort to recapture outworn experience.

Mars, Libra 20

Libra 20: A JEWISH RABBI. A symbol of man's self-assurance as gained by bringing a deeper understanding to his fellows. the social nature of the inner being is stressed here by an interest in eternal values such as is characteristic of years and masculinity, and by a feminine receptivity of soul which has its expression in the warmer contacts of a ministrations to everyday human needs. Here is the potential of high dedication by which an individual or a group may become a special channel for the aspirations of all. Keyword: HERITAGE When positive, the degree is the extraordinary insight which comes to those who are able to stand on the shoulders of the giants who have gone before, and when negative, an unhealthy sense of self-superiority.

Jupiter, Capricorn 4

Capricorn 4: A PARTY ENTERING A LARGE CANOE. A symbol of man's necessary adjustment of the practical details in his immediate environment as a preliminary to any personal participation in experience, and of his greater concern with these at times than with the real ends in view. Here also is his desire for approval of his fellows before he commits himself, and his determination to involve them in whatever commands his own attention. The individual is sure of himself as he acts with others. Keyword: ORDERING When positive, the degree is exceptional capacity for bringing all proper relationships to a point of effectiveness in any given exigency of everyday affairs, and when negative, inability to get along with anybody.

Saturn, Pisces 17

Pisces 17: AN EASTER PROMENADE. A symbol of that constant expansion of self and experience which characterizes reality on its conscious levels, emphasized here on the side of humanity's utterly individualistic self-expression. Implicit in all the ridiculous extremes of man's vanity and self-exhibition is a realization that each least manifestation of his personal excellencies must be shared widely and generously as the basic condition of their development. A human society exists only as one person is able to dramatize himself satisfactorily to all. Keyword: CELEBRATION When positive, the degree is tireless self-refinement in an effective inspiration of others, and when negative, a craving for attention.

Uranus, Taurus 6

Taurus 6: A BRIDGE BEING BUILT ACROSS A GORGE. A symbol of the conquest of natural difficulties by conscious means, and of any individual's essential independence of nature's accidents or inconveniences. There are always ways in which physical limitations may be transformed into personal or social assets, thus contributing a dependability on the outer side to a consistency on the inner and so giving every possibility of continuance and intelligence to human experience. Keyword: CHANNELSHIP When positive, the degree is the directness and the practical instinct by which personality achieves ultimate benefit of its powers, and when negative, a love of short cuts and every possible escape from the obligations of daily living.

Neptune, Virgo 19

Virgo 19: A SWIMMING RACE. A symbol of the utter impartiality of existence in any larger dimension, and of the stimulus of direct competition whenever an individual seeks to perfect or enjoy some one of the special skills comprising his individuality. He discovers that it is necessary to control every separate factor of his being, or else be ruled by the divergencies which make them up apart from their function within himself. Life superficially remains in unstable balance, and survival is in the terms of that effectiveness or excellency which is best able to prove itself. Keyword: ELIMINATION When positive, the degree is man's capacity for any extreme of self-pointedness he may find valuable in a given case, and when negative, inadequate self-dramatization.

Pluto, Cancer 29

Cancer 29: A MUSE WEIGHING TWINS. A symbol of man's continual if not always evident relationship with the over-reality in which he lives and moves and has his being, here given an emphasis on the side of inner reconciliations. Individual existence is always manifest as personality in the world of the senses and as reason in a realm of eternalities, and the effective union of these complementary functions is found in the immortal insights of a spiritual wholeness. A person knows himself now one way and now another, and thereby realizes his integrity of selfhood. Keyword: VALUE When positive, the degree is an effectiveness of judgment irrespective of momentary contradictions on every hand, and when negative, an undisciplined perfectionism.

Ascendant, Cancer 12

Cancer 12: A CHINESE WOMAN NURSING A BABY WITH A MESSAGE. A symbol of the wide ramification in experience by which man achieves his greater opportunities, emphasized on the wholly personal side as he is able to include the far-flung capabilities of the race itself in his own individual complex of talents and skills. Life gains significance to the extent that each person embraces the totality of his kind in his own make-up, or seeks to embody universal values in his everyday consciousness. Keyword: MATERIALIZATION When positive, the degree is a gift for bringing the more Godlike resources or superior powers of self to a point of real community service, and when negative, completely unreasonable demands for recognition.

Midheaven, Taurus 2

Taurus 2: AN ELECTRICAL STORM. A symbol of man's real power for making an effective impact on events, dramatized at each moment of issue and crisis by the completeness of his inward self-mobilization. There is here a catharsis of nature, mirroring the capacity of every individual for discharging the whole complex of strain in his affairs and so clearing the way for a more genuine progress ahead. Implicit in the symbolism is a terror in the loss of aplomb whenever human personality rises to a moment of union with the universal forces. Keyword: TRANSFORMATION When positive, the degree is a genius for dramatizing both the values at hand and the potentials ahead, and when negative, unreasoning timidity in all self-expression.

P_Fortune, Taurus 25

Taurus 25: A LARGE WELL-KEPT PUBLIC PARK. A symbol of the everyday integrity of society at large, and of the community divisions of labor through which each person gains the resources for well-being and self-enjoyment which obviously he could never create for himself through his own isolated efforts. There is here an emphasis on the common experience of mankind as the setting for an individual's worth and achievement in their more characteristic lineaments, and for his consequent self-discovery and self-realization. Keyword:

RECREATION When positive, the degree is a high devotion to the practical welfare of all people collectively, and when negative, a complete surrender of personality to mass judgments and transient superficialities.

Chiron, Gemini 21

Gemini 21: A LABOR DEMONSTRATION. A symbol of man's unimpeachably universal spirit, and of his realization that the lines of property and private rights which he finds entrenched all around him are limitations without validity except as they constitute a social stewardship. Implicit in the reversed symbolism is the fact that right and justice only prevail to the exact extent a conscious effort is made to establish and maintain them. Individuals and groups will prosper as they dramatize their own justification effectively. Keyword: REPRESENTATION When positive, the degree is a consistent courage in attacking major problems at any cost of minor well-being or inconvenience, and when negative, futile ill-will and bluster.
