Introduction

The following pages contain a brief evaluation of key elements of your birth chart, although it is by no means complete. Astrology can reveal many things about a person's life and personality, and you could study your chart for a lifetime without knowing the answers to all of your questions. The descriptions that follow will give you a "thumbnail" introduction to yourself through astrology.

In interpreting your chart, this report considers the sign of the planets and the north node in your chart, as well as their house placements. It also describes the sign of the Ascendant and the strongest aspects between the planets.

You may note that some of the following descriptions appear to contradict each other--and indeed we are all walking bundles of contradiction. If you examine yourself carefully, you will probably realize that you do in fact possess the qualities of both conflicting descriptions. Even though some parts of the reading may seem to clash, you will see that certain themes are repeated throughout the following pages. These are the ones that will become major issues in your life.

The readings stress that you are the ultimate decider of your fate. The stars may indicate the hand you were dealt at birth, but it is up to you to play that hand well enough to achieve your goals. Also, bear in mind that every "bad" aspect of a chart also has a "good" side. How it is expressed is really up to you. We tend to work at expressing ourselves more positively most of the time and only lapse into the negative behavior described when depressed, angry or scared. Or it is possible that some aspects may better describe your personality or behavior earlier in life. They may seem alien now because you have already worked through them.

A "Strength" number precedes each aspect description; this number takes into account how exact the aspect is, whether the aspect is a major or minor one, and whether an aspecting planet is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to act it out in your life.

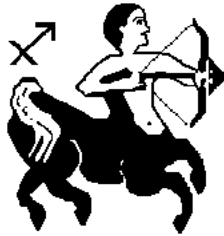

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkPlanets in Signs and Houses*Aries Ascendant

You enjoy being the leader in any project you undertake and are generally aggressive and outgoing. If you carry your aggressiveness to an extreme, you will act impulsively and rashly. This may even result in injuries, especially to the head or face. Don't be too hasty when taking action. Lay careful plans for your future and then implement them step-by- step. Others may consider you blunt and tactless at times, and it is not easy for you to compromise. You have a quick temper, but you rarely hold a grudge for any length of time. You may have strong reactions to the people you deal with and will either consider them friends or enemies; you see little gray area in between.

You are generally healthy; your main problem areas will be headaches and kidney problems. You don't like to take medication, and are very impatient with illness or pain. In order to better handle health problems (and everything else), you need to develop a more patient, placid approach to life.

Since the Ascendant has a great bearing on the physical appearance, you will have Aries features. Your hair is plentiful (although men may have a receding hairline or bald spot), you are usually slim, and you have sharp features. Your eyebrows are thick and bushy, and they may even grow together over the bridge of your nose. You are not naturally graceful, and your movements are rather quick and jerky.

Sun in Sagittarius

Sagittarians have a strong need for freedom and self-expression. Ruled by Jupiter, the mythological King of the Gods, you love adventure, travel, exploration, flirting, gambling, and--most of all--truth seeking. You are constantly looking for new opportunities to accomplish your goals in life, and for this reason you are not likely to miss much. Just be careful that your optimism does not swell into over- confidence and laziness so that you sit back and do nothing as chances pass you by.

You pursue your personal and professional goals with great vigor, but are quite likely to get distracted along the way when something (or someone) else seems more interesting and challenging. Sagittarians are well known for being socially active--even promiscuous. This is especially true for the men, who take on the womanizing qualities of Jupiter himself. Natives of both sexes are usually attractive and well-dressed, and they have a knack for setting new fashion trends.

In your relationships with others you are frank and honest, sometimes brutally so. It's not that you mean to be, but not everyone can take so much raw truth at one time. You enjoy physical activity and can grow restless without it. You have little regard for customary social etiquette and prefer to behave in a nonconventional manner. Existing rules of conduct are no more than a charade to you, and you refuse to play. You thoroughly enjoy socializing with your friends, but they must learn to take your blunt outspokenness.

Just like their ruler, Jupiter, Sagittarians can have a very nasty, thunder-and-lightning kind of temper. But once the storm passes, they return to their sunny selves; they don't hold grudges like Scorpions. In fact, they can be very philosophical about such outbursts and quickly identify a higher meaning to them. In fact, Sagittarians always look for a deeper meaning behind everything. They continually ponder over the secrets and great mysteries of the Universe.

Romantically, you seek a long-lasting and deep relationship. You must have a special close intimacy with your partner that transcends sex. Although you may spend your youth being somewhat promiscuous, in the long run you realize that casual sex is not satisfying to you. It is important that your lover help you grow rather than try to limit you.

Sun in the Eighth House

This house placement of the Sun gives you Scorpio qualities, whether you have any planets in Scorpio or not. You understand that your life is one grand transformation after another, and you accept that this is how it should be. Others may consider you to be a very serious and intense person. As a child you probably shocked adults with your deeply probing questions and wise comments.

As a child you may have had trouble telling the difference between what was yours and what belonged to others, and you grew up with an appreciation for money and private possessions. As an adult, you would do well in a career that involves handling others' money or property. Responsibility in the handling of material resources is a lesson you learned early in life.

Sexual expression and physical intimacy are very important to you. You can read more from a partner's tender embrace than from a long conversation. You rely more on your gut level emotional "vibes" than on intellectual discourse when "feeling out" your partner. You always enjoy being the one in control in any relationship and must be careful not to manipulate your partner into a submissive role.

Persons with this house placement often are attracted to lovers who are many years their senior or junior. In this type of relationship, the younger partner benefits from the acquired knowledge and experience of the older. Whatever partner you choose, your relationship will be characterized by intensity and depth of emotion.

Moon in Leo

With your Moon in Leo you are warm, loving and outgoing. Your favorite relationships are those which encourage mutual growth--whether they be love relationships, friendships or business partnerships. You are not afraid to meet others halfway in order to accomplish this.

With this Moon placement you are highly idealistic and should exercise discrimination in choosing your friends and lovers. Don't settle for less than what you want in your personal relationships. Otherwise you will begin to resent the other person and to express disappointment in them.

You love children and may actually have difficulty cutting the apron strings when they grow up. Your children know they are loved and will return your affection with the utmost respect. They are inspired by your example, which encourages them to develop a healthy measure of self-confidence and optimism about life.

In business you usually emerge as a leader. At the very least, you are capable of exercising authority in a benevolent fashion and therefore make a good supervisor. Others respect you and are encouraged by your sense of pride in your work. Just be sure you don't take on too much responsibility. Be willing to share some of the burden with others when needed.

Since you enjoy the social scene, you need a partner who is similarly inclined. You love being the center of attention, as this is a great ego boost for you. You enjoy the company of many varied friends, so your love partner must be able to look beyond petty jealousies and share you with the rest of the world.

Moon in the Fifth House

Your feelings are strong and you are honest with others about your emotions. Entertainment is important to you, and you enjoy attending the theater and attending social gatherings. Just be careful not to party too hardy. When you are in such high spirits you may take unwise risks with your health. There is also the possibility that you will get carried away by emotions at such times.

The older you get, the more you seem to enjoy young children. For this reason you would make a good teacher of youngsters, whether this is done in a classroom or through setting an example with your life. Children (and adults) can appreciate your poetic imagination and your openness. Although you may not actively seek the spotlight in life, you don't mind a little publicity every now and then.

Your friends and loved ones are inspired by your enthusiasm for life. It is easy for you to make friends, and you reap much joy from your close relationships. This Moon placement indicates that you will go through a multiplicity of love relationships during your life. This is partly due to your popularity with others and also your tendency to exit a relationship when it becomes too complicated. Learn to face such difficulties head-on instead of running from them. This will be much more satisfying in the end.

Mercury in Sagittarius

With Mercury in Sagittarius you are very direct about your opinions and, if you are not careful, can become very critical of others. While some people will appreciate your frankness, others may wish you would use more tact. You approach life with a youthful and adventurous outlook, and you will retain this quality well into old age.

Because of your keen mind and impulsive nature, you will explore many different subjects and philosophies during your life. Travel to foreign lands would be very expansive for you, as it would widen your view of the world. You also have a deep respect for education. Your main weakness is your inability to stay focused for extended periods of time. While you may have grandiose ideas about extravagant projects, you very seldom manage to follow through on these inspirations.

With Mercury in Sagittarius you are prophetic, philosophical and truthful. Others come to you for advice on their problems, which you are always willing to provide. You constantly support justice and freedom of thought, and you are quick to speak out against unjust treatment of others. You sometimes overlook the details of life because you are completely focused on the larger perspective. In other words, you miss things right under your nose because your eyes are on the mountaintops.

You will achieve your greatest success once you learn to focus your energy on one project at a time and to follow it through to completion. This will allow you to turn your lofty ideals into concrete realities for the benefit of everyone.

Mercury in the Eighth House

With your intense curiosity about mysterious or supernatural subjects, you probably enjoy murder mysteries or occult books. Although you spend a lot of time thinking about sex, you will find that sex for its own sake is unfulfilling. With your talent for probing subjects deeply, you would be an excellent researcher. Others find you mysterious because you are so secretive.

Venus in Capricorn

Rather conventional in your values, you look at things for their practical use rather than for decorative appeal. You take life seriously and are probably interested in business and banking matters. Although you may not be a classist, per se, you are definitely conscious of your reputation in the community and pride yourself on being above reproach. You prefer to associate with others who are similarly inclined.

As a friend or lover, you are very loyal and trustworthy. Once you commit yourself to a relationship, you will be a solid and dependable mate. You look at love practically, just as you do the rest of your life. If possible, you would prefer to "marry up"--that is, to marry someone who will make you look good because of their own success or social status.

You are attracted to people who are practical, persevering and accomplished. With this Venus position you certainly recognize true value in a partner when you see it. Security is very important to you--both emotionally and materially. You seek quality in your relationships and will not settle for anything less. You would not last long with a partner who tarnishes your reputation or otherwise threatens to lower your status on the social scene.

Venus in this sign makes you somewhat controlled and reserved in your love life. You are able to be patient and wait for what (or who) you want. Actions speak louder than words to you in your love life, and you will be a tremendously loyal and helpful mate. You seek security in your relationships, and you truly need to be needed. It is important to you that your mate treat you and your relationship with respect.

Venus in the Tenth House

You are highly ambitious, and you will work hard to achieve success in your career. While it is true you want the advantages of material success, you also seek the approval and respect of your neighbors and peers. You have a talent for pleasing others with your voice through public speaking or singing. You tend to form emotional attachments with people you meet through your career.

Mars in Aquarius

With Mars in Aquarius, you are eclectic, have a highly developed intellect and are good at "thinking on your feet." This makes you handy to have around during emergencies. You are very independent and insist that your loved ones accept you as you are and give you the freedom you require.

In your career you are a hard worker and have a knack for coming up with ingenious ideas to improve efficiency and effectiveness. Your friends and loved ones respect your loyalty to your friends and your "live and let live" attitude in competition. You have earned the trust and respect of your many varied friends.

You are somewhat unconventional in love (and proud of it) and often fly in the face of tradition. It is not easy for you to establish lasting intimate relationships, but once you have made a commitment you are very loyal and devoted. You must be able to respect your lover and consider him or her one of your best friends.

Your love partners are likely to be "different" from society's norm. You are highly eclectic yourself and are fascinated by people who are extremely unique or unusual. It is important to you that your mate relate to you truthfully and allow you to have your personal freedom. In relationships you have a "live-and-let-live" attitude and could not tolerate a jealous or possessive lover.

Mars in the Eleventh House

You enjoy getting together with friends to share a sport or other physical activity. You pursue friends who are independent and who have goals similar to yours. Because you are sometimes intolerant of beliefs which are different from yours, you are not the easiest person to relate to. Karmically, your circle of friends contains many enemies from past lives with whom you must learn to cooperate.

Jupiter in Taurus

With Jupiter in Taurus, you have a natural ability to apply yourself practically to earn and accumulate money. You are loving and sympathetic toward others, and you probably like to contribute to a charity of your choice. With your appreciation for the finer arts, you collect only those objects of the highest quality. You make a point to enjoy the finer things in life. Avoid a tendency to over-emphasize material possessions.

Jupiter in the First House

You are self-confident and optimistic, and you enjoy sports and travel. You are caring and protective toward loved ones, and they know they can depend on you when in need. Since you have the ability to inspire others with your enthusiasm, you are a natural born leader. Because you live life to the fullest, you should avoid over-indulgence, which can lead to weight problems.

Saturn in Libra

You always seek balance and justice, and for this reason you have a strong sense of social responsibility. With Saturn in Libra, your greatest lessons will be learned through your close personal relationships. Through your partners, you will learn greater cooperation and sharing as you seek harmony and balance. You may encounter relationships which are restrictive and limiting, or which in some way require you to develop greater self-discipline. Traditionally, this placement indicates that you will marry late in life.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkSaturn in the Seventh House

You find it difficult to express your feelings, even to your most intimate loved ones, although you have a strong need to relate to others. You are extremely cautious about marriage because you are looking for that perfect mate. You may gain status and security through marriage. Usually indicates at least one difficult break-up of a relationship or marriage. You may marry late in life or choose a partner much older.

Uranus in Cancer

(1948-1956)

Your home is a high priority, and you are very nurturing and protective of loved ones. You may have considered your mother to be an unacceptable role model, so that you feel the need to not repeat mistakes she made in raising you. Circumstances may force you to change residences more often than you would like. Your feelings are hurt quite easily, and you are careful not to trust just anyone.

Uranus in the Fourth House

Your relationship with your mother is very unusual; this has deeply affected you emotionally, whether good or bad. There were probably many sudden changes in your early life, and you may have changed residences often. If Uranus is afflicted, you may have suffered a disruptive or broken home early in life. Perhaps one of your parents was absent during your youth or is very unusual and eccentric.

Neptune in Libra

(1942-1957)

You have a strong desire for peace, harmony and justice and will work to bring about humanitarian reforms. Your ideas about relationships are much different from your parents'. You must learn to compromise and to sacrifice what you want if necessary in order to achieve balance.

Neptune in the Seventh House

You tend to see only what you want to see in people, and this can result in disappointment and frustration. With your strong desire to find the ideal partner, you must learn to see your lover more realistically and to accept the good with the bad. You have a strong need to be needed. You may be required to make sacrifices for your partner and to forgive and tolerate their imperfections.

Pluto in Leo

(1938-1958)

Your generation saw the birth of greater autonomy and self-rule among the world's nations, as well as the hippy movement. New labor-saving devices created more leisure time. Television entered our lives, and the entertainment industry mushroomed. You have a strong desire to creatively solve the world's problems.

Pluto in the Fifth House

You are highly creative and have unique and unusual talents and abilities. If you have children, they will be different and difficult for you to understand. It is hard for you to relax and enjoy any competitive game or sport because you take winning so seriously. Avoid approaching your love affairs with this same somber attitude, for it deprives you of the ability to have fun.

Capricorn Midheaven

You should find a career that takes advantage of your organizational ability. You work pragmatically and consistently, and pay attention to the little things that make a difference. You are very responsible in your career, displaying a high sense of duty. You are ambitious, but are willing to carry a large share of the load on your way to the top. Furthermore, you are not just a maintainer of the status quo or a reactor to events, but see in a clear-eyed way what needs to be done and will initiate action on your own.

Your choice of career typically displays an acknowledgement of financial and material realities. It may not be flashy, but it is secure and worthwhile. During your life, your patience may be tested by periods of loneliness, poor health, hard work, poverty, or problems with your marriage, children or aged dependents. You may feel that your road has been a lonely one without much assistance. If you give way to melancholy, you may become passive about your lot and suspiciously distrustful even of your friends. Alternately, stress can cause you to become cynical and ruthless. However, your greatest success will come in those areas where through long, hard work you complete tasks that others do not even attempt.

Occupations consistent with your material, ambitious style of work include executive, builder, real estate or agriculture worker, stockbroker, administrator, civil servant, computer scientist, academic, engineer, photographer, doctor, biologist, chemist, miner, metallurgist, or prolific author . For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the 10th house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of Saturn, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

North Node in Aquarius

You are extremely self-confident and optimistic about life. During many lifetimes, you have occupied a position of success in society, perhaps even been a member of royalty. During this lifetime you will learn to put aside your substantial ego and to consider the needs of the larger society of which you are a member. In order to achieve your greatest happiness, your actions must be motivated by a desire to bring about humanitarian change rather than a desire to receive personal praise for your efforts.

North Node in the Eleventh House

In past lifetimes you were in a position of leadership and lived in luxury. In this lifetime you will devote your energy and creativity to groups with humanitarian goals rather than to your own selfish ego gratification. You will learn to value friendship as much as you once valued your material possessions. Listen to your dreams, for they bring you higher guidance.

Chiron in Capricorn

You are on a quest for higher meaning in life, and you could excel in a career that helps you further your search. Such fields include travel, education, publishing, or any position involving healing or enlightenment. It is important to you that you are on the right path in this life, and you will work hard to achieve success. You also recognize that others' paths are perfect for them, even if they differ from your own.

Your relationship with your father was not a close one, and the lack of a good male role model requires you to create your own inner father. You may not even have known your father, or else he was distant, incapable or cold. If you are a parent, you will do your best to raise your children very differently. Just remember that you are still human and therefore imperfect; don't be too hard on yourself.

Chiron in the Tenth House

You take your obligations in life very seriously, and you are not likely to give up in the face of difficulties. In your career, you could handle positions which include high-level responsibilities, and you are very realistic and pragmatic about your work. You expect a great deal from yourself, and can be your own worst critic. You are drawn to work that allows you to further your search for higher truth, such as: religion, travel, education, or justice.

Your relationship with your mother greatly influenced the way you see the world. Either you valued her guidance and wisdom and followed her example, or you felt she was inept and irresponsible, and you resolved to be just the opposite. Many of your lessons in life will involve working within limitations and restrictions. As you mature, you will develop greater self-discipline and perseverance.

Planets in Aspect

Sun trine Ascendant (Strength: 13.94)

You have complete confidence in yourself and your ability to succeed in life. People admire your optimism and usually offer their cooperation and support. You are highly creative and combine this gift with a fantastic imagination in your work. On the other hand, you may be apathetic about your talents and even be lazy at times. Be careful to take opportunities when they present themselves. They may not be offered again.

Your parents imbued you with a sense of good character. You accept responsibility for setting and achieving your own financial goals. But you must learn to take constructive criticism. Your chosen career must offer room for growth and security for your twilight years. You appreciate a good challenge and can easily excel in your chosen field if you use your talents well. Others will admire your achievements --which will delight you-- and you will be well compensated for the good job you do. Forming a business partnership with someone who shares your optimism and ambition would almost certainly result in success for you both.

In your love life you express yourself very well with your body language, communicating your sexual interest in someone without words. You can teach your lover a lot through your life experiences.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkSun trine Moon (Strength: 13.90)

Traditionally, this aspect brings a certain amount of "good luck" into your life. Not only do you have the ability to accomplish whatever you set out to do, you will also feel comfortable with fame and positions of power. But first you must convince yourself that this is possible and decide to actively pursue your goals.

Your relationship with your parents contributed to your growth as an individual. Perhaps they encouraged you to establish your own individuality rather than becoming what they wanted you to be. Your family will be a source of much joy and support throughout your life (unless other problems are indicated by other aspects to your Sun or Moon).

Because you are honest and sincere in your dealings with others, you can rise to the top of your chosen profession. The best fields for you are those which are expansive, such as real estate, development or planning. You seek to continually move forward in life and need growing room to do so. Because of your calm and soothing personality, you work well with the public and cope well with problem situations. As a supervisor you would have the ability to get people to carry out your requests without being overbearing about it.

Children are drawn to you and respect you. When you are around they will behave like angels to impress you because they also seek your respect. You enjoy being looked up to by youngsters and will be caring and protective of them (yet not restrictive). During your life you may serve as mentor to many young people.

In your love relationships you prefer stability and balance to up-and-down affairs. You and your partner will support each other and will grow a great deal through your relationship. Because you are rather even-tempered, you can provide emotional stability for a partner who is less secure.

Moon trine Ascendant (Strength: 13.85)

This aspect gives you an active imagination and much talent for creative expression. You are easy-going, sensitive and emotionally poised and appreciate the sense of values that your parents instilled in you. You are articulate in communicating your ideas, and you are quite resourceful in bringing your creative ideas to fruition. Even if you have to do without some of the comforts of life in order to achieve your goals, you are determined to do so.

You are willing to make sacrifices in your personal life in order to achieve your goals. This could entail postponing marriage until after college or waiting to have children until your career is established. You need to receive appreciation for your efforts, especially those whom you have helped the most. Just be sure that others do not take unfair advantage of your good nature; choose your friends carefully.

In your close relationships you express your feelings quite naturally, and you communicate with your partner through body language and facial expressions as well as with words. As a matter of fact, you prefer this subtle--almost psychic--method of communication.

You were probably very close to your mother as a child, and she had more influence than anyone else on your behavior and your attitude toward relationships. You have a strong need to be loved and to be needed by your friends and loved ones.

Moon square Jupiter (Strength: 11.94)

You are very generous with others and may even find yourself lacking because you have given your resources away. Because you seek the easiest route to any goal, you often do not plan your endeavors well. Be careful not to overload yourself with credit obligations. You are an easy mark for a fast-talking salesperson because you love to spend money.

At times you are extremely enthusiastic about life, and at others you feel that you couldn't care less. You have strong natural talents but are not always willing to invest the time and effort necessary to develop them. You may complain that you don't seem to get anywhere in life, but you are not willing to put out any further effort to do so.

It would be a good idea to hire a financial planner to advise you on your economic situation. This way you can learn to deal responsibly with your obligations and invest toward a better future. Instead of reacting emotionally to adverse economic situations, you would then have a plan of attack. Learn to be a little less self-indulgent and more emotionally mature. This is your key to success.

In your career you would do well in law, education, medicine, or managing a restaurant. You could also be very satisfied working as a physical therapist or rehabilitator for the handicapped. This allows you to count your blessings in life when you see others who have genuine disabilities. In turn, you can inspire them to make the most of their lives.

In your personal relationships, be careful not to jump to conclusions or make rash judgments. You can be irresponsible and fickle in this area, although you probably feel that it is you who is always deserted. Don't be so afraid to become emotionally involved with others that you shy away from intimate contact altogether.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkVenus square Saturn (Strength: 11.05)

It is not easy for you to relate well with others, and this may hinder your social relationships. In truth, you don't want to deal with the responsibility of a close personal relationship. This causes you to become defensive with those you love--you are afraid of the demands they will make upon you. This can be traced to an early rejection in life--possibly by a parent. Because of this rejection you built walls around yourself in order to avoid further hurt.

Perhaps you feel that you were not meant to enjoy happy relationships in your life. But if you will learn to accept others as they are and are willing to compromise, you can achieve social and domestic happiness. There is nothing different about experiencing difficulties in relating to others. Everyone goes through times of trouble--you are not alone in this.

Once you have learned to make concessions in your dealings with others, you will see that others are willing to do so. Your greatest lessons in life will be achieved through making adjustments to others. After all, everyone has their own idiosyncrasies to deal with--even you. Cultivate a more positive attitude toward life instead of feeling sorry for yourself. Otherwise, you will suffer physically from tension and anxiety through high blood pressure or other illnesses. Give of yourself instead of complaining about others' demands of you.

If you are to be successful in your career, you must learn to deal more easily with others. You can achieve great heights in this area if you are willing to compromise and accept others' shortcomings. You could succeed in a career in law, banking, insurance, real estate, or designing. You are well organized and exercise good judgment in your work. All you need to ensure success is to build up your own self-esteem. Others will admire your honesty and integrity.

In your love life you must learn to avoid destructive relationships. Approach your love affairs more realistically--don't expect too much of those you love. This sets you up for disappointment and convinces you that you are not destined for happiness in love. However, this can become a self-fulfilling prediction. Learn to enjoy your lover without making judgments or criticisms.

Mars square Jupiter (Strength: 10.95)

This is a difficult aspect in any chart, although it does have its brighter side. Although you are impatient, scattered and prone to domestic and professional squabbles, you are also energetic, ready and able to meet the challenges you encounter.

Although you have the energy and guts to tackle the obstacles life hands you, you must cultivate self-discipline if you are going to succeed in your endeavors. Otherwise you will "spread yourself too thin" and scatter your energies wastefully. Although you admire others who are successful, you must be willing to put out the sustained effort required to achieve your goals.

Your greatest impediment to success is your impatience. If a project doesn't "pan out" right away, you drop it and go on to something else which offers more immediate results. This aspect will improve as you age, and you will eventually learn to have faith in yourself--which in turn will help you cultivate persistence and self-discipline.

Learn to set priorities and stick to them. And channel all of your energies into one major project rather than scattering your efforts to the four corners of the earth. You should carefully husband your resources, especially your own time and energy, and plan your actions more carefully.

In a career you could excel in law, government, acting, media, public speaking, writing, teaching or even sports. Don't be discouraged by the setbacks you encounter on your road to success. You will eventually see that you can learn more from your failures than your successes. Get up, brush yourself off, and keep on going.

In your intimate relationships you will probably encounter much tension and adversity. You may sometimes find it difficult to deal closely with others and may even encounter problems with co-workers or employers. This is partly because you can't take criticism gracefully, and you are prone to complaining about your misfortunes.

Traditionally, this aspect indicates that you are accident prone. In truth, you are likely to disregard safety practices and therefore set yourself up for injury. Try not to be so impulsive. Also, be careful not to overindulge in anything (work or play). Get lots of rest and watch your health.

Saturn conjunct Neptune (Strength: 10.94)

You prefer to use extreme caution in your professional and social life. Because of this, you are not easy to deceive -- for long. You are somewhat skeptical of spiritual and occult matters, and you ask for rational explanations of such phenomena. You are yourself quite psychic, and you should learn to trust your intuition.

This intuition can be especially valuable in your career, for you can make important decisions with a high degree of success. You are good at seeing through dishonesty and insist on proof to support allegations.

You have a healthy attitude about religion. You could be called a practical idealist. Even in emotional relationships, you seek solid evidence of love before making a commitment.

You do not casually form close relationships. You would not long be satisfied in a superficial relationship, however, because you instinctively seek one of substance and stability. Once you have formed such a relationship, you are intensely loyal. But you must remember to allow your mate to be different from yourself, and do not criticize him or her for human failures.

Be careful with medication. Never take any that is not directly prescribed for you. You may suffer unpleasant side effects from artificial drugs or even vitamins.

Uranus square Ascendant (Strength: 10.92)

You are a rebel at heart and value your freedom very highly. You strongly resist attempts by others, especially authority figures, to control you, and this includes your parents. You probably had continued conflict with your family while you were growing up. Because you have such a knee-jerk reaction to restrictions, you engage in confrontations with others when you are not really prepared to defend yourself. When you do respond, your energy is so scattered that you fail to put up an adequate defense. With a little self-discipline you can learn to think things through well before opening your mouth.

It is difficult to find a career which gives you the amount of freedom that you need. You almost certainly should work for yourself or in a position which allows you total autonomy. You are also not interested in making money for its own sake. It's much more important to you that you contribute something of value to the planet. While this is a noble philosophy, it doesn't help anyone if you starve. You are angered by social injustices and work to help the underprivileged, especially the children.

Your outspoken nature requires a special sort of partner, one who is not afraid to have you bluntly express your opinion, even if it's about them. A partner who is more emotionally stable than yourself could provide stability without necessarily being restrictive. You also need a partner who is as experimental in sex as you are.

Moon opposite Mars (Strength: 10.89)

Your personal relationships are a constant source of conflict in your life, and this is mostly because of your unwillingness to compromise. You seem to be willing to fight over the smallest things, and often take things personally that you shouldn't. Your emotions are intense, and you are easily provoked.

In men this aspect indicates a lack of tenderness; in women it shows arrogance and pushiness. In either case, you are impatient with the needs of others and impose your demands on those around you. You usually seek out relationships that are physically or economically advantageous to you without considering the person's personality or compatibility with yours.

When you learn to compromise you will find it easier to reach a balance in both your personal and professional lives. Learn to allow yourself to make mistakes; even try admitting you are wrong now and then. This endears you to others because they can see you are willing to admit your imperfection. When challenged by others, take advantage of the situation to clear up all misunderstandings. Be more understanding and forgiving of others, and they will be the same toward you.

Your domestic life is likely to be a stormy one until you have mastered this art of compromise. It is not difficult to get into an argument with you. For your own protection, don't tell your secrets to anyone other than your most trusted loved ones. Also, be careful not to stick your nose into others' business or to spread gossip about your friends and neighbors. This will surely backfire.

Venus square Neptune (Strength: 9.99)

You have tremendous creative abilities, and this is either a blessing or a curse in your life, depending on whether you find the appropriate creative outlet for this energy. One of your difficulties in doing this lies in the fact that you aren't comfortable in a highly competitive environment. If at all possible, it would be best for you to be self-employed and, preferably, work alone much of the time. You are highly sensitive to stressful situations. Tension and frustration are just plain unhealthy for you.

Another of your difficulties in life is that you insist on seeing people and situations through rose-colored glasses. You want so much for everything to be wonderful, that you refuse to see it any other way. Of course, this can cause continual problems in your personal relationships. With time and maturity, you will learn to be sure those offers are as incredible as they seem, and beware of those who would like to take advantage of you. You won't be casting aspersions on anyone's character simply by insisting that you know all the facts, or know them better, before making a solid commitment. And it will save you a lot of heartache in the long run.

You need to improve your judgment in the area of money and material possessions as well. Be careful to see your financial situation clearly, or you'll end up in debt over your head. Avoid buying on credit any more than necessary.

AstroIDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig Newmark

Neptune sextile Pluto (Strength: 7.98)

This is the only aspect Neptune has made to Pluto during this century, and the planets will remain in sextile to each other for another hundred years, although the signs the planets occupy will continue to change as time passes.

For those born between 1942 and 1956, Neptune was in Libra and Pluto in Leo. These people were born at a time of global war. Governments rose and fell; kings were ousted from their castles. There were breakthroughs in air power (Neptune in Libra) which helped establish the balance of power between the U.S. and the Soviet Union. This time was filled with meetings and peace conferences between global leaders. Those born during this time know that compromise is not enough to achieve peace; you are naturally suspicious of your leaders, and this will help to promote greater honesty and accountability on the part of political figures.

If you were born between 1957 and 1970, Neptune was in Scorpio and Pluto in Virgo. There were new advances in health and medicine, as well as rapid spread of illegal drugs. Our long-held conservative attitude about sex began to dissolve, and we began to realize that marriage was not essential to maintain a committed relationship. Those born during this time seek to serve and improve society. You are also angry about the current state of our environment and natural resources.

If you were born between 1971 and 1983, Neptune was in Sagittarius and Pluto in Libra. Your attitudes about religion, education and human interactions are most likely different from those of your parents. Your religious beliefs, or spiritual practices, are important to you, and you are deeply concerned for the fate of your planet and the race of man. You will insist that your leaders be straight with you and will not accept excuses or manipulation. You are also interested in occult sciences, and many advances in this area will be made by members of your generation.

If you were born between 1984 and 1998, Neptune was in Capricorn and Pluto in Scorpio. You are part of a generation which will make great progress in dealing with power responsibly, both in terms of interpersonal relationships and as protectors of our Mother Earth. You will seek to transform society and replace rampant injustice with compassionate guidance.

Mars conjunct North Node (Strength: 7.98)

You are highly competitive and have an intense thirst for all of the excitement you can find in life. Learning to assert yourself appropriately will be a major source of spiritual growth in this life. If you can add some concentration and self-discipline to your enthusiasm and drive, you will have a greater chance to achieve your goals and ambitions.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig Newmark

In past lives you have sacrificed a great deal for those who did not appreciate your efforts. Now you are learning to be more decisive and to assert yourself in order to be sure your needs are met as well. Your challenge is to learn the difference between assertion and aggression. Since you become restless easily, you prefer to stay active.

Jupiter trine Midheaven (Strength: 7.36)

Your strong sense of optimism and self-confidence inspire others, and they will readily come to your aid. Since childhood, you've had very harmonious relationships with authority figures (beginning with your parents and teachers). Although you know you are very talented, you don't need to brag about your accomplishments. You prefer to just live your life and let others judge you by your actions.

It's not enough for you to have a highly paid job. You want to be able to practice your most sacred principles and beliefs through your career. You must feel you're making a difference in the world, and that your work has some higher purpose. You would not last long in a job that required you to sacrifice your principles and ethics.

With your creative mind, you like to stay busy to avoid becoming bored. In addition to the work you do professionally, you also like to have special projects or hobbies for entertainment at home.

Saturn sextile Pluto (Strength: 6.96)

You are driven to succeed in life, probably because security is very important to you. Still, you will not let money dominate your life or accept it as a substitute for love and personal satisfaction. You can lay successful plans for success because you are willing to accept the new responsibilities that accompany such success. In your climb to the top, you leave nothing to chance. You do not feel threatened by anyone because you fully expect to succeed.

You have a high respect for education and realize that life itself is one of the best teachers. As a supervisor, you expect a great deal from your underlings. Yet in dealing with superiors you are humble enough to seek their advice and counsel.

In your personal relationships, do not harbor ill feelings or anger. Although it may seem the best thing to do at the time, these pent-up emotions will undergo a pressure cooker effect and the ultimate explosion will be all the more violent.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkSun sextile Mars (Strength: 6.79)

Communication is your greatest strength, and you could be successful in: writing, teaching, media, or detective work. You would reap great satisfaction from working with young people to help prepare them for the future. You would also be a competent advisor for leaders or others in positions of power. In such an occupation you could rise to a prominent position and gain widespread recognition for your efforts toward excellence.

You have an incredible amount of energy and can accomplish as much as two other people combined. You are overflowing with creative abilities and constantly seek new avenues for expressing your talents. You hold firm opinions but do not force them on others, recognizing instead their right to believe as they wish. Before reacting to any situation you closely examine all your options. If you should make an error in judgment, you don't mind admitting so.

Because you recognize the need to keep informed on current events and developments, you are probably an avid reader. You are confident of the position you take in any discussion because you are well informed. You also like to keep at least one eye peeled for new opportunities that you may be able to take advantage of.

In your love life you have strong physical desires, but you like to know a partner very well before engaging in a sexual exchange. You are a very reliable mate, and you can inspire your lover with your enthusiasm. The best mate for you would be one who encouraged you to develop your fullest potential.

Mars sextile Ascendant (Strength: 6.74)

You approach life with a great deal of enthusiasm. With your overabundance of nervous energy you become restless if you're not constantly on the move. Your tremendous creativity can be enhanced by developing a little self-discipline in asserting yourself. It would also help for you to learn the art of compromise. You usually state your opinions forcefully and then demand that others go along with you. This is not the best way to win friends and influence people.

In your career you will always do more work than is asked of you, and for this reason you gain the respect of your supervisors. You need a challenging job which allows you to continuously prove to others (and to yourself) that you are competent. You readily take on new responsibilities even without being asked to do so.

You enjoy being physically active and appreciate a partner who can keep up with you. Even though you can be quite stubborn and seldom "give in" once you have dug in your heels, you have a strong sense of fairness and will fight to correct injustice when you see it. You enjoy your independence and will vigorously resist any attempts to restrict your actions. Because you are very comfortable with your sexuality, you can help your partner overcome any sexual hangups they may have.

Uranus square Neptune (Strength: 6.52)

This is a "generational" aspect which appears in the birth charts of those born in the 1950s. You are rebellious at heart, but somehow talk yourself out of doing anything about it. Because you are uncertain which causes you should back and are fearful that you stand to lose too much by flying in the face of authority, you often stand aside and watch others fight the battle for you.

If you fail to live up to your social responsibilities, you will suffer guilt and self-doubt. Remember how you would feel if others did not act to protect your rights when they were threatened. Since freedom and social justice are so important to you, don't be afraid to fight for others. Don't be afraid to speak out for what you believe in--no matter what the cost. You'll feel much better about yourself.

Don't be afraid to challenge others who abuse their positions of authority. Do what you can to see that they are brought to justice. You have a talent for inspiring others to fight with you. If you don't have the courage to become directly involved, you can always support those who do.

In your personal relationships, use your gift for weaving beautiful fantasies to your advantage--in the bedroom. Otherwise, be sure to separate fact from fiction when dealing with others. Just because the fantasies are so beautiful, that does not mean that real life can't be even better. Don't handicap yourself with such concerns; this can cause you to become sexually insecure.

Saturn square Uranus (Strength: 5.46)

It is difficult for you to make up your mind to initiate change in your life. You are uncomfortable in unfamiliar situations and could be tempted to stay with the old and familiar rather than strike out into the unknown.

This attitude could be a result of parental conditioning to seek outside approval of your abilities before acting. It is important that you leave the past behind you, but this is exactly what you fear most. Once you overcome this fear, you can accomplish anything.

Good careers for you would include: politics, research, or even the occult sciences. You need to begin your career at the bottom of a very tall ladder, because you will surely want to climb as far as possible.

Remember that the failures in life teach you more than the successes; accept it as part of the path to the top. The hard times require you to pull out your greatest strength and struggle. This is how you find out how strong you are.

In your relationships you will seek approval from your partner. Don't allow yourself to be manipulated by guilt or duty. And most of all--don't underestimate your own worth.

Neptune opposite Ascendant (Strength: 5.44)

You are very sensitive emotionally and must be careful that others do not take advantage of your good graces. What others think of you matters a great deal, and you constantly seek their approval. But you are often disappointed by others, mostly because of the idealistic view you hold of them. You must learn to be more realistic in your dealings with others.

At times you may make obligations to others in order to not be alone. You feel incapable of fending for yourself and seek relief from this sense of helplessness through others. If others need you and you serve them well, then you are an acceptable person. Therefore, you seek your own inner worth by serving others. Others who recognize this tendency in you may try to take advantage of your generosity. Choose your friends carefully and offer to help others only if they ask for your assistance first.

With your active imagination and high level of creativity, you would do well in the creative arts: music, writing, theater or the arts. You can excel in these areas if you are allowed to create at your own pace and in your own way. Entering into intense competition with others would not be advisable. Learn to be creative in a way that sets you apart from others.

You may tend to focus on your negative qualities rather than appreciating your many talents. Tell yourself over and over that you deserve to be happy and that you are loved. Don't hesitate to seek the advice of loved ones when you need it. They care for you more than you know.

Romantically, you are drawn to a mate with a strong personality. Be careful not to be hypnotized by another's presence so that you can't see the relationship realistically. Make no long-term commitments without knowing the other person very well.

AstroDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Craig NewmarkPluto trine Ascendant (Strength: 5.42)

You will experience profound transformations in your life through your personal relationships. You require depth and intensity in your dealings with others, and you prefer to have a few deeply intimate friends rather than many superficial acquaintances. You have a knack for persuading others to do things your way, and at times you may need to be reminded that others need to go through their own intense changes without your interference. Education is important to you, because you recognize it as the key to all knowledge.

You are highly creative and can literally do anything you set your mind to. Setbacks in life do not trouble you, because you recognize your mistakes as lessons designed to help you grow. Whatever field you choose as a career, you will want to be the best at whatever you do. You enjoy pleasant rapport with both competitors and associates, and they usually respect you as an equal.

You feel comfortable with your body and have a healthy attitude toward sex as well as a healthy appetite. You admire inner strength in a partner and indeed would soon lose respect for anyone you consider to be "weak." Resist the temptation to control your partner as this may result in power struggles.

Sun trine Pluto (Strength: 5.36)

You are highly motivated and have a knack for mobilizing your resources and others to bring about needed improvements. Others are inspired by your vitality, and for this reason you make a powerful leader. You are more inspired by higher purpose than by your position of power, however, as you deplore those who worship and abuse power.

Your uncanny ability to see through the pretenses of others and to identify the root causes of complex problems may at times threaten others, but once they see that you do not intend to abuse this ability, they can trust and follow you. Your heightened sense of perception and intuition enable you to function well in a time of crisis.

One of your natural talents is the skill for handling others' resources. You would do well in a career which involved financing, account management or trusts. Your deductive mind and perceptive abilities also make you an ideal candidate for work as a psychologist, surgeon, researcher or criminal investigator. You will do well in any job which requires you to restore order to chaos by locating the problem and then (like a surgeon) skillfully removing it. You are a natural born healer on many levels.

Traditionally, this aspect indicates the likelihood of your receiving an inheritance or some other windfall which results through the efforts of others. You will most likely do well for yourself on your own, however, if you can combine your enormous creative power with your spiritual motivation and sense of purpose.

Moon conjunct Pluto (Strength: 5.26)

Your love nature is a deep and intense one, and you will seek a committed relationship rather than waste your time on superficial ones. Since your feelings are so deep, you seek someone who can respond on the same level. This may present problems at times when others who are not so strong emotionally are threatened by the intensity of your feelings. Once you are in love, you are prone to become possessive and demanding. If you should be rejected, you will respond with vindictiveness.

It is not easy to live with you in a domestic situation because you can be somewhat of a tyrant in the home. Be careful not to create your own loneliness by alienating loved ones. You are not always in control of your emotions, and are forever searching for the ideal love who will fulfill you.

Your sex drive is quite high, and you may find yourself held captive in emotionally unfulfilling relationships which have a hot sexual component. Even if the sex is wonderful, you will not be satisfied until you also possess your partner's heart and soul. You want complete and total commitment and will settle for nothing less. If you don't find your perfect mate, you will wait and suffer, feeling that you probably don't deserve it anyway.

Your emotions fluctuate from one extreme to the other-- always hot or cold, with little in between. Superficiality is not your bag, and in time you will learn to concentrate most of your energy on those relationships which provide the depth you crave. If you are lucky enough for you to find the ideal mate, you will reach depths of emotional and spiritual growth that are rarely known by others. It is common with this aspect for you to search most of your life for the perfect love only to discover one day that it is someone you have known for years. Often this realization comes too late.

You will do anything in the name of love, and for this reason others may take advantage of you. Because you are aware of this weakness, you become defensive in your personal relationships. At times you may also have to resist the urge to take advantage of others.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Fire

You are an active, future-oriented person who is not weighed down by past commitments. You take advantage of new opportunities better than most. Life for you can be a vibrant affair in which you passionately pursue causes, lovers, and experiences. You have the self-confidence to be a leader. Competitive and flamboyant, you have little patience for slow people or unexciting work. When an activity interests you, you can be very generous with your time, energy, and money. Find outlets for your gifts of creativity and intuition.

Watch out for a tendency to exaggerate or to be insensitive to others' feelings. More cautious types may envy and resent your free spirit and competitive nature. You get bored easily and may depend on others to finish the projects that you start. When your warmth is guided by love, wisdom, and positive goals you have the ability to heal and inspire others, but when you focus on your self or lack direction, your short-lived passions can affect others in destructive ways.

Lack of Water

For you the world of feelings may be terra incognita. Close interpersonal relations, which require the expression of feelings, and empathy for others' feelings, do not come naturally or easily for you. You have difficulty putting yourself in someone else's shoes in order to feel what they feel. You will learn how to deal with life in a tough, mental sort of way. People looking for someone to empathize with them should not come to you. Those people who are comfortable with you are not looking for emotional closeness. It's not that you don't have emotions and feelings, but they do not come out easily in your relationships. If you are an artist, they may come out in your art. You probably take refuge from the difficulty of forming emotional connections by concentrating on intellectual, practical, or inspired activity. Your best companions would be those who are able to inhabit these realms with you, but who are also in touch with their feelings. They can help you to contact your own feelings and teach you to respect and honor other people's feelings.

A lack of planets in Water signs can be offset by a Water sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the houses of Endings.

Lack of Earth

You may be so focused on the "bigger picture" that you have difficulty managing the many details of life. Balancing your checkbook or leaving your bedroom clean may seem beyond your abilities. Other tasks may be important, but you find it hard to concentrate long enough to complete them. Knowing your own lack of concentration and self-discipline, you may cling to established routines because you know that you are able to do important things through force of habit. If you do not flit from job to job, you could hold onto a job or a relationship for too long because you do not trust that you will be secure without it. Your lack of real world perspective may make it hard for you to distinguish that which really matters from that which is unimportant, so that you sometimes focus on small things while leaving the really big things undone. You may say that you care about money, but unless you have abundant planets in the houses of Substance, you will not execute a detailed plan to get it. If you can avoid driving them crazy, enlist the help of those more grounded than yourself in order to turn your inspirations into reality.

A lack of planets in Earth signs can be offset by an Earth sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the houses of Substance.

Abundant Life

Abundant planets in the houses of life gives you both the energy and the urge to create the future. By your activities, you make the world a better place. You may be somewhat self-centered, but with your crusading spirit you move the world towards the ideals that you envision.

Abundant Endings

With abundant planets in the houses of endings, you are probably sensitive, moody, and introspective. You are not afraid to show your feelings and make an empathetic listener to the problems and feelings of others. You have been around the track enough yourself to sense what others are going through and to show that you care. You are not the most intellectual or practical person. You can be easily swayed by an appeal to your emotions.

Lack of Substance

You are not the most grounded or practical person. The rules of this material world are not well known to you. Others may admire your dreams, but they could be impossible dreams. You may find it difficult to choose, plan, and work towards a career or vocation.

A lack of planets in the houses of Substance can be offset by abundant planets in Earth signs.

Abundant Fixed

With an abundance of planets in Fixed signs, you have the staying power to complete a project, grow a family, or expand a business. Your strength is what friends notice most about you. You have definite values; you focus your affections on the people and things that are part of your team. Friendships formed over time are important to you. You may be found at the center of a circle of friends, a large family, a government agency, or a business. You understand the contribution that stability and security make to prosperity and growth. It throws you off-balance when friends are not as reliable as you are or when love and ideals are not part of your life. Concentrate on developing confidence in yourself, a wholesome world for your family or group, and binding others to you with love. If you have a weakness, it is trouble changing or listening when people tell you a better way to do things. You can handle this weakness by empowering your team, as among them will be individuals who are good at reacting to a constantly changing world.

Abundant Succedent

An abundance of planets in the succedent houses increases your ability to enjoy life. In turn, you can give others pleasure. You are a basically stable person with strong values, feelings, and attachments. You enjoy working to build the structure of your life. As you gain confidence in your self, you bind others to you with love. You have a strong physical presence.

Abundant Angular

An abundance of planets in the angular houses helps to give you drive and initiative. It makes you active in the external world. Expressing your individuality is important to you. You are probably a leader who enjoys challenges and can get things moving.

Lack of Cadent

A lack of planets in the cadent houses tends to reduce the time that you have to yourself. You may feel that you are always in the limelight or somehow involved with others. This leaves you little time for solitary reflection. The life of a spiritual recluse is not for you. You don't change quickly, but must gradually grow into changes.

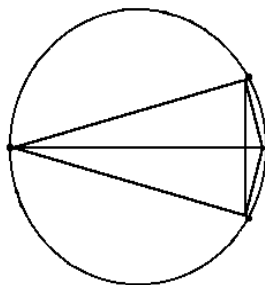

A lack of planets in the Cadent houses can be offset by abundant planets in the Mutable signs.

Aspect Patterns

Introduction to Aspect Patterns

Astrology describes the complex personality pattern inside each of us that makes us an individual. Some charts have many aspect patterns, others few. Some lives feature much change, others follow a steady course. Your chart features 4 aspect patterns. The fewer the patterns you have, the closer the descriptions should fit you. This report will try to interpret the tightest, most dominant patterns first. There is an almost infinite variety of planetary arrangements that are possible - the moment of your birth picked one of those possibilities. All humans feel the patterns formed by the planets at our birth, but the manner and extent to which we are able to express those patterns depends on a combination of circumstances and free will. If you are reading this, then your brain is past the stage where it is dominated purely by instinct - a part of you is sensitive to the planetary dynamics in the astral body that was created at your birth. Perhaps seen from the viewpoint of worldly values, some charts may appear more fortunate than other charts, but seen spiritually we each have a chart that gives us the opportunity to learn valuable lessons. The external life occupies the ego's attention while the universe teaches the spirit what it needs to learn. You have the opportunity to channel the life energies of the planets in the course of creating and experiencing the joys, rewards, sorrows, and frustrations of being alive. You experience those energies according to the unique configuration frozen in your natal chart, but you always have free will.

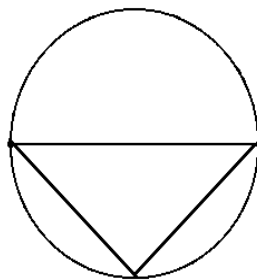

Arrow Yod

This chart features the aspect pattern known as the Arrow Yod, which is a special case of the more common Yod or Finger of God aspect pattern. At least two planets in favorable sextile aspect to each other, the Sun and Mars, form difficult inconjunct aspects to at least one focal planet, Uranus, as with the Yod, but in the case of this Arrow Yod pattern, there is at least one reaction planet, Chiron, which lies midway between the sextile planets and opposes the Yod's focal planet, receiving back through the opposition in a boomerang the energy that the inconjunct planets, the Sun and Mars, direct at the focal planet, Uranus. In the case of this Arrow Yod pattern, the connection of another planet, Chiron, through the opposition to the focal planet, Uranus, gives Uranus more perspective and expression than the inconjunct planets would supply. The pattern gives your life a focus and mission. Refer to the house and sign placement interpretations for Uranus and Chiron. The favorable sextile aspect between the Sun and Mars makes you observant with the strength to act. The Sun gives you an open and generous personality. Mars adds an element of daring, reckless behavior, especially in combination with the Moon. This pattern centers you, making you flexible and quick to react.

With Uranus as an Arrow Yod pattern focus planet, people enjoy your refreshing personality. Your philosophy is to live and let live. You are not a stifling or boring person. You are complex, interesting, and resistant to easy categorizing. If your remarkable life ever does become boring to you, you will do what is necessary to keep it exciting. You have persistence and can stay with a job for a long time; you manage to keep a fresh mental attitude by having different activities in your life. You are innovative and keep up with new technology. You would enjoy a free-form career that rewards inspiration, one that lets you 'wing' it. You don't like small-minded bureaucrats administering rules - you are a rule-breaker, an iconoclast, a satirist. Your biggest danger is the arrogance of pure reason, as seen in arrogant technocrats. Your advanced ideas are not always well-grounded and this pattern does not tend to produce careful scientists. But if you have the humility to involve others and accept their help, then you are much less likely to make mistakes. There might be good reasons for the traditional ways of doing things. With Chiron as a reaction planet, you have a high personal energy level. Your health will likely be especially important during your life. You may work to overcome barriers imposed by sickness, ignorance, prejudice, or poverty.

Fixed T-Square, tight

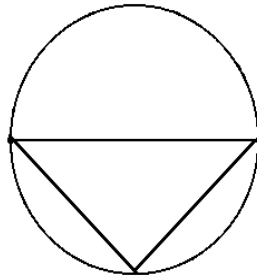

This chart features a tight version of an aspect pattern known as a T-Square. At least two planets that are in opposition aspect to each other, Mars and the Moon, form difficult but energizing square aspects to at least one focal planet, Jupiter, where all planets involved in the pattern fall in Fixed signs. The T-Square can be an irritating aspect pattern to have, but the benefit of this connection between the planets is that it challenges you and keeps you from being lazy. The configuration's energy flow lets you accomplish a lot in a short amount of time. The reflective Moon causes you to be influenced more than most by the people with whom you come into contact. You probably have a love of family, history, reading and writing. You may be blessed with a wonderful memory. The Moon gives you a sense of humor. You are good at reading the public taste and reacting to it. You could have a career in which you work for or appeal to the public. This reflective connection makes you kind of a chameleon - you adapt to your environment as opposed to making your environment adapt to you. They say that no man is an island - this is especially true of you. Your identity and the meaning of your life comes from your relationships with other people. You are quick to react when your friends need help. Mars in this pattern makes you thrive on vigorous action. The extent of your personal force and energy can be surprising. Mars can cause you to take risks and cut corners. You could be athletic and a sports fan. You are courageous and, especially with outer planet involvement, could be a patriotic citizen. You could serve your country in the military. You do not hesitate to confront or challenge. Unless Saturn is involved, desk jobs do not really agree with you. You can appear abrasive when you are unhappy. The concentration of Fixed sign planets activates your perceptiveness and endurance. You are probably good at managing your resources. There are few occupations where the Fixed T-Square distinguishes itself, although it is a common pattern in the charts of writers and happily married people. It is less often found in the charts of deranged people - the Fixed T-Square pattern increases your sanity.

With Jupiter as a focus planet, you live life large. You give one hundred percent to everything that you do. You don't hold anything back. You throw yourself wholeheartedly into your work and through continual experience and experimentation expand your knowledge and ability. You are productive with good earning power. Your career could really take off if you have a more organized person to assist you. Your sincere devotion to the people and causes for which you care is almost religious in nature. You combine a commanding presence with a surprisingly gentle demeanor. You are an expansionist who is willing to take risks - you learn through making mistakes. You may not be the first in your class, but you have a positive personality that is outgoing and talkative. You are willing to pay your dues, becoming known for your reliability and hard work. Your intelligence is such that you develop a style and personality that is distinctive. If this is carried to a negative extreme, it can become megalomania and eccentric behavior. You may learn from a role model whom you admire or attach yourself to a mentor. You know what you like. You have high principles which you are not willing to compromise. Your good-hearted generosity may lead you to work for or donate to charities. Neither mean nor prejudiced, you do not become part of petty squabbles, but support cross-cultural connections. Your heart is big enough to adopt a child.

Cardinal T-Square

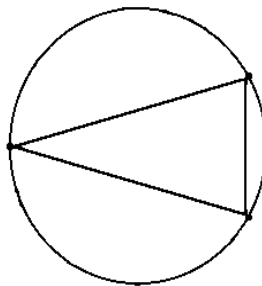

This chart features a frequently found aspect pattern known as a T-Square. At least two planets that are in opposition aspect to each other, Uranus, Venus and Chiron, form difficult but energizing square aspects to at least one focal planet, Saturn and Neptune, where all planets involved in the pattern fall in Cardinal signs. The T-Square can be an irritating aspect pattern to have, but one benefit of this connection between the planets is that it challenges you and keeps you from being lazy. The configuration has an energy flow that lets you accomplish a lot in a short amount of time. Venus increases your sociability. You care about and get along well with other people. You make time for conversation. You have grace and charm. You are a people-pleaser, but to avoid overcommitting yourself you must learn to sometimes say no. You make a devoted spouse. With Uranus as a pattern planet you like to shock. You do the opposite of what is expected. You draw upon inner inspiration. You think for yourself. You are something of an aristocrat which can make it difficult for you to be part of a team. While your mental ideas are ahead of their time, you may be slow to mature socially. You are so original and unique that you are really only in competition with yourself. You could be attracted to aviation or modern technology. Chiron opens you up to input from the higher mind. You go where your inner light leads you. You can be quite versatile and a risk taker. You pursue diverse goals, straying from your comfort zone, taking risks that make you feel alive and challenged. You perform well under pressure, especially if Mars is involved. The concentration of Cardinal sign planets activates your imagination, making the Cardinal T-Square a common pattern in the charts of musicians, painters, actors, politicians and deranged people. It is less often found in the charts of occupations requiring incredible discipline, such as writers. While you have the imagination to be a good scientist, you may not have the patience for it. Cardinal signs are in love with action - with you there is often little gap between thought and deed.

Saturn as a T-Square focus planet makes you highly disciplined and orderly, perhaps too much so. Saturn limits your spontaneous expression, requiring you to act on the basis of knowledge. Saturn natives fall somewhere on a continuum from being repressed, bitter schemers to being deep, sage-like mentors. Either way, you will be more serious and responsible than most. You make a good student in school, although you may already be focusing on a career in the larger world. You study how the world works. You approach life like a game of chess, to be planned out in advance. You see issues in a clear-sighted way, not allowing sentiment or even moral considerations to distract you. Not naive, you are a survivor. Saturn makes you think like an architect. You can improve the functioning of any system. But if you have no deep principles or high values, the cleverness that works for you in the mid-game can work against you in the end. The paradox is that to realize the security for which you yearn, you have to stop caring about it so much. If your career comes first, your personal life will suffer as a result. Your ideal spouse will understand your career world. You can share your deep knowledge by being a coach and mentor for others in your business.

Neptune is a focus planet for this pattern. The other planets direct their energy at Neptune. To have so much energy channeled through Neptune makes you a somewhat reclusive romantic dreamer, idealist, and clairvoyant perceiver. Your sensitive antennae reach out into the universe for awareness and knowledge. Your sensitivity gives you a love for animals. You have an affinity for peaceful natural environments, which you may try to protect. Neptune's energies can be strange and elusive. Your vivid imagination can blur the line between fact and fantasy. You can be a virtuoso at distorting reality. You don't like to be confined by restrictions, nor by facts or rules. You rebel against restrictions, but you're a rebel with a heart. You have soul and style. The other planets in this pattern may describe your style. Your life will be hard to categorize. In a world that can be cold and technical, you find ways for people to connect - you overcome barriers. Your love is stronger than your fear. You are quick to give. Especially if Jupiter is part of this pattern, you have a strong feeling of social responsibility. You have sympathy for the powerless. You work to give others a better life. Your health may be delicate - avoid exhausting it, either with drug/alcohol abuse or overwork. Don't push yourself and don't let others push you.

Yod

This chart features a frequent aspect pattern known as the Yod, otherwise known as the Finger of God. At least two planets that are in favorable sextile aspect to each other,

Jupiter and Uranus, form difficult but energizing inconjunct aspects to at least one focal planet, the Sun. The sextile aspect between Jupiter and Uranus tends to define your personality, but how you express yourself in the world is shown by the Sun and any planets that conjoin or aspect the Sun. Jupiter gives you strong ethics and an inclination to help the less fortunate. You succeed by throwing yourself wholeheartedly into what you do. Uranus gives a commitment to freedom. You are not a follower - your perspective is unique, such that one cannot easily classify your work and career with that of others. You may be interested in technology or aviation. The inconjunct aspects increase your drive, giving you a powerful longing for a goal that you cannot clearly see. The Yod pattern combines planets from three different sign modalities - Cardinal, Fixed, and Mutable. You desire to act, but action does not come easily. After a long process of personal development, however, your thinking will become more effective. The Yod is called the Finger of God because the nature, sign, and house placement of the focus planet indicates your mission in life, especially if the pattern is tight (the sign degree numbers are close for the planets in the three signs). Refer to the house and sign placement interpretations for the Sun.

With the Sun as a focus planet for the Yod pattern, you look for a way to have the self shine. The life force is strong within you. You can maintain an activity that puts you at the center of attention for a long time. You thrive on the attention, but others are happy to have you play this role, as long as you are up for it. While other patterns may contradict this, the Sun as a focus planet makes you stable and conservative.
